

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

ORIGIN OF THE NAME.

THE surname Holm or Holmes is classed among those local names in England which describe the nature or situation of the original bearer's residence, such as Hill, Dale, Wood, etc. A flat ground in or near water was called a holm.

In early days, no doubt the name was Holm, but in repetition of the possessive case, such as Holm's land or Holm's cattle, the name easily became Holms to a majority of people. Holmes seems to be the universal orthography, although the e is left out in Scandinavian as well as in some English families, even at the present day.

Up to and including the period of the American Revolution, the name was spelled in the following different ways; in fact, with only a few exceptions, these names can be found on the rolls of the Continental Army:—

Halm, Halms, Hallms, Holemes, Holems, Hollems, Hollmes, Hollms, Holm, Holmbs, Holmes, Holms, Holome, Holomes, Holoms, Holum, Holume, Holumes, Hom, Homas, Homs, Hoomes, Wholmb, Wholmbs, Wholms, Whomes, Whooms. A deed in Salem was found where the name was recorded as "Holmies."

In a number of cases the name was spelled in two different ways in the same document, caused by the ignorance of the clerk or the general illiteracy of the people of the early times.

PLAN AND EXPENSE OF RESEARCH.

No one who has not given the subject much thought can comprehend the difficulty of spanning three centuries and tracing lines of descent of which no previous record has been attempted.

Every county seat in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, and the principal ones in Maine, as well as scores of towns, have been personally visited by the writer and abstracts made from the probate courts, registries of deeds, county institutions and town records.

In the other three New England states, land and probate records are made and kept by towns instead of by counties, and those having Holmes families have been visited where necessary.

Churches, lodges, cemeteries, courts, town records, wills, deeds, societies, aged persons, old bibles, diaries, etc., all have a story to tell.

No circulars of inquiry were sent, to be thrown into the waste basket, but, instead, thousands of personal letters appealing directly to the individual were sent, which resulted in replies in ninety-five per cent of cases. All this means labor and expense which the author has personally assumed, without soliciting a single subscription.

TIME AND ENERGY DEVOTED.

Twenty years ago the writer first began his work on the Holmes Family, and during the last five years has devoted all the time and energy at his command to the completion of this book. Some of the information has been obtained under great difficulties, and where there are thousands of names and dates it is well nigh impossible to prevent a few errors creeping in, especially if the information is given erroneously, and without means of verification.

A perfect genealogy is yet to be written. "When a man makes a feast he more certainly invites his critics than his friends"; yet in general, family genealogies are reliable and are most always written by painstaking people who devote years of their time without compensation.

The writer feels gratified that he has succeeded in collecting so much that is reliable and that has never been printed. Also in establishing several lines of descent that have heretofore been in doubt.

THREE BROTHERS.

The writer has been told in a dozen cases that "three brothers came over," etc., but the reader will notice an entire absence of that notion in any of the families herein mentioned. It is perfectly wonderful what a vitality this "three brothers" story has among ordinary people; yet it is an almost proven fact that among the thousands of early immigrants of our colonial period, the cases of three brothers arriving as settlers could be easily counted on the fingers of one pair of hands. The descent from royalty, the fortune lying in England awaiting claimants, the coat of arms fallacy, can all be disposed of in about the same ratio.

THANKS.

It would be utterly impossible to prepare a complete work of this kind without some help from a great many families.

The writer takes this opportunity to thank all those who have aided him in any way. On the other hand, the members of the Holmes Family should thank the writer for the establishment of their lineage.

The compiler would be bereft of gratitude if he did not mention the names of a few who have rendered substantial assistance.

To Miss Lucy Nichols Holmes of Pomfret, Conn., much credit is due in her aid in preparing a skeleton or frame work of the descendants of Jehoshaphat Holmes (19) of Pomfret, putting time and expense into conscientious and ambitious work.

The same may be said of Miss Cora Estelle Holmes of North Attleboro, who performed similar service and who saved the writer much expense and time in research on the descendants of Joseph Holmes (27).

Miss Adelaide Crocker Holmes of Rockland, Me., has been of material assistance in her inquiries on the descendants of Elijah Holmes (110) who went to Rockland in 1795.

Miss Anna Marion Brown of Fort Plain, N. Y., a descendant of Ebenezer Holmes (119), did creditable and beneficial work in a neat type-written copy.

Mr. James Horatio Holmes of Doaktown, New Brunswick, saved the writer a trip to the Provinces to look up the descendants of Lewis Holmes (217).

The Hon. Newton Talbot, a short time before his death, gave the writer all the original notes and abstracts that he had on the Stoughton and Sharon Holmeses, which was a help and a verification to the writer's research.

Mr. Frank E. Randall, of 60 Wall Street, New York, has made a broad study of the Holmes Families and has a type-written copy of the early generations of the principal old Holmes Families of New England. This volume he kindly loaned to the writer, but unfortunately it did not arrive until after these pages were printed. But it was used for verification, and where two persons working independently of each other, arrive at the same conclusion, it would prove that each work had very few errors.

To humor a family pride, to dissipate several "traditions," to solve many puzzles and straighten many entanglements, has been a labor of love, and like all genealogical works, an expensive gratification ; but if the Holmes Family will appreciate his work he will feel as if his labors had not been in vain.

GEORGE ARTHUR GRAY,
Atlantic, Mass.

JULY, 1908.

GEORGE HOLMES OF ROXBURY, MASS., AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

George¹ Holmes was born in Nazing, England, in 1594 and died in Roxbury, Mass., Dec. 18, 1645, according to the town record; although the Apostle Eliot, under date of "Month 12 day 2, 1645," tells us in the church records that "George Holmes a godly broth^r dyed of a fea^r." He is buried in the Eliot burying ground, near John Eliot his friend and adviser.

He married in England, Deborah ———, born there and died in Roxbury, according to Eliot, who says in his diary, "Moneth 11, day 6th, 1662 Widdow Homes was buried."

Nazing is a small parish in the town of Waltham, Essex County, sixteen miles north of London. It is situated on an elevation, rendering it pleasant and healthful. The old church is on a hill and is seen for miles around; it is built of brick, stone and flint; it has an entrance on the side, as shown in the frontispiece, and the building is now used for worship, as it will be probably for scores of years to come. At the west end there is a square tower, embattled, containing five bells. It was built in 1535 and the records were begun in 1559 and are well kept. (See engraving, which is from a photograph taken in June, 1904, by a young miss of eleven years, a grand daughter of Mr. Goddard, the (then) present vicar. The negative was made specially for Mr. Mather Hinckley Holmes of Monrovia, California, when he visited the birthplace of his pilgrim forefather.)

Mr. Holmes found the following record of Baptisms in Nazing Parish.

GEORGE HOLMES, bapt. Nov. 5, 1592.

GEORGE HOLMES, bapt. July 27, 1594.

SAMUEL HOLMES, bapt. Dec. 13, 1598.

JOHN HOLMES, bapt. Mar. 29, 1601.

LYDIA HOLMES, daughter of George Holmes, bapt. July 26, 1635.

These are all the Holmeses there are in the earlier records, and the present (1904) vicar's assumption is that, with the exception of Lydia, they were all of one parentage, the first George dying in infancy. Joseph's name is not given, and it is supposed that he was born on the way over, or very soon after his parents arrived in Roxbury.

The following entries also appear in Nazing Parish Register and are given here only as a curiosity.

- 1580. Nicholas, a vagrant woman child christened Jan. 15.
- 1593. William ffox nurse child Buried Nov. 7.
- 1599. A wandering woman Buried Sep. 2.
- 1601. A wandering boye Buried Jan. 19.
- 1605. Ed a young child Buried

William Holmes was made vicar of Nazing, Sep. 28, 1513, and continued until his death, 1541; if he was a relative of George, the writer has not discovered it, having made no systematic search on the other side of the water. The work is lengthy and arduous enough on this side.

GEORGE¹ HOLMES came to this country, as near as can be ascertained, in 1637.

The apostle Eliot left the same town in 1631, his brother Philip Eliot, following in April, 1635, in the Hopewell. There were about twenty others from that locality, most of them settling in Roxbury.

W. Winters, F.R.H.S., in his "Memorials of the Pilgrim Fathers," gives the name of Holmes with the names of many others who were in Roxbury with Eliot (pages 68, 70). There is on the court records of Nazing Court Leet, dated 1637, the names of certain jurymen, in some cases identical with the names of early settlers of Roxbury. In that list is the name of George Holmes. (Ibid, p. 71.) Mr. Winters has in his possession a manuscript of all "copieholders and freeholders belonging to this manor of Nazing this twelfe of January 1637." This list also contains many names appearing later on this side of the Atlantic, the name of George Holmes being among them. (Ibid, p. 73.)

He was made freeman May 22, 1639. (Mass. Col. Rec., vol. I, p. 376.) He and his wife are mentioned in Roxbury church records as being members of Eliot's church.

In Roxbury Land Records, page 49 (*27), are described the possessions of George Holmes, including dwelling-house and barn, summing up about two hundred and fifty-two acres in eight different parcels. (Boston Rec. Com. Rept., No. 6, p. 26.)

In Roxbury Town Records we find that in 1640 there was a list called "A note of the estates and persons of the Inhabitants of Rocksberry." The assessments range from £1 to £18. There were three who were assessed £10, George Holmes being one of them, he standing the tenth in amount of property in a list of seventy.

The following is an abstract of his will, the original in the handwriting of Eliot. (See REGISTER, vol. 7, p. 36.)

"Will of George Holmes. (Roxbury.)"

My loving wife sole executresse. I giue vnto her my whole estate, to be improved for the education my children, but none of my lands to be sould vnlesse in case of necessity & by the advice of my overseers. After my wives decease, my houses & lands shall be equally divided amongst all my children; yet if it shall please the Lord to convert my sonne Joseph in the meane time, so as y^t he is in charity accepted among the saints, my will is y^t he shall haue two parts, & the rest but each of them one. And my request is to my Dearly beloved brethren Elder Heath, broth^r Eliot & broth^r Parks our Deakens & my broth^r Ruggles and Brother Riggs to be my overseers to counsell & guide my wife in all her affaires. I giue full power to them to make the fore named division of my lands in the most equal & peacable manner they can, & if any of my children will not rest in what they doe, my will is y^t child shall lose his part, & it shall be given to such as my overseers see most fitt, & I intreate my deare wife to doe nothing of moment wthout the advice of these my overseers. Also my will is y^t there shall not be strip & wast made of timber and fire wood from my ground, only so much as may be for the necessary vse of my family.

John Scarebrow.

Mr John Eliot deposed before court, 30 11 1651 that George Holmes was of a disposing mind the years 1646 or thereabouts."

He took the oath of allegiance in 1679 and died May 4, 1692. He lived after marriage on the banks of the Neponset River in that part of Dorchester that is now Hyde Park and adjoining the property of his neice Mehitable Trescott (See VI under NATHANIEL 3.) Eliot's diary tells us that "7 mo (16 dy) 1678 Lidea Elder daughter of Bro Homes took hold on the Covenant & had 4 Child'n baptized." The children, all born in Dorchester, as recorded, were: 1. Lydia, b. "10th of the (5 mo) 1668"; d. "12 (mo: 5) 1668". 2. Remember, b. Joseph' Holmes (George'), whose birth record is not found, presumably was born in 1637, on the passage from England, or very soon after his parents arrived in Roxbury.

He died in Boston, Oct., 1713, intestate. Judge Sewall, in his diary, Vol. II, p. 405, writes under date of Oct. 27, 1713, "This day Joseph Homes, father of Capt. Nath^l Homes, is buried with a very thin Funeral."

For some reason, administration on his estate was not granted until Aug. 11, 1716. His son Jonathan, as administrator, reported Oct. 27, 1816, that "one acre of land" and "one acre of Salt Marsh" comprised the estate "left by his Said Father." "He can find nothing more to make an Inventory of." (Suffolk Co. Probate, vol. xix, p. 206).

He married, about 1660, Elizabeth Clap, born in Dorchester, June 22, 1638, and died in Boston, Dec. 25, 1711; daughter of Capt. Roger and Joanna (Ford) Clap. "She was a virtuous and prudent woman. She died in Boston, and was buried near her parents."* She was made a member of the Old South Church, Mar. 8, 1690; dismissed from Dorchester, probably. (See Clapp Family, p. 8.)

July 17, 1688, Joseph Holmes joined the Old South Church. He did not take the oath of freeman until May 15, 1690.

"Joseph holms" subscribed to the purchase of a bell for the First Church in Dorchester, Dec. 15, 1675. It was about this time that he began service in King Philip's War, which continued for one and one-half years. (See Bodge's King Philip's War, pp. 364, 365.)

If he had any particular trade or location, it has not been discovered. Both in Boston and Dorchester, his name appears on many documents as witness, and on some as "attorney." He seemed to be occupied largely in running boundaries, settling estates, making deeds, etc. He was constable for many years.

The whole of page 195 of Dorchester Town Records is given to the settlement with constable Joseph Homes of £80, 2s. In 1674 £27 was paid to the Castle Soldiers engaged in 1671 and 1673 establishing town boundaries of Dorchester, "Melton," "Braintry," Dedham, etc., receiving 6s. for each boundary.

The children of Nathaniel Glover of Dorchester, becoming of age, petitioned the court for a settlement of the estate, Apr. 28, 1674. Joseph Holmes of Dorchester was one of the three who were "impowered to Divide the said Glovers late estate." Some of this was "Salt Marsh over against or between the Mr. Glovers Newbury

* In King's Chapel Burying Ground. Capt. Roger Clap was buried in the N. E. corner, but when the present City Hall was built his headstone was removed to its present location.

Farm and Squantum Neck to be equally divided between them." This property is located in the confines of what is now Atlantic—Ward 6 of Quincy—and part of it has remained in the hands of the Glovers, continually, ever since.

It is presumed that he removed to Boston about 1679, perhaps earlier, for we find that Jane Bates of Hingham, 13th 4^m 1679, made over her "whole Estate," also what "may bee due . . . by promiss . . . unto my loveing and trustey ffrriends Samuel Clap of Dorchester and Joseph Homes of Boston," . . . "that the will of her dear husband . . . may be fulfilled." (Suffolk Co. Deeds, vol. xii, p. 130.)

Several houses in Hingham belonging to this estate were bought by Capt. John Thaxter, father of Sarah Thaxter, who later became wife of Nathaniel Holmes (6).

On Mar. 11, 1680, Joseph Homes sen^r had a mortgage on the property of one Wm. Pickering, near "fort Hill," Boston. (Suffolk Deeds, lib. xii, p. 27.)

Joseph was in many lawsuits, mostly regarding boundaries of land and the ownership of real estate, whether or not for himself we cannot say, but the suits were entered in his name. He lost a case against Ann Sheffield, where "Homes" was deeded a house and land by one Perry without the consent or signature of said Perry's wife. (Prov. Laws, vol. vii, p. 613.) Many cases are recorded of lawsuits, mostly on lands and estates, in the name of Joseph Holmes. (See Records of Court of Assistants, Colony of Mass. Bay, and Province Laws.)

In 1682, May 4th (Boston Town Records), "at a meeting of y^e Selectmen of this town it was ord^rd y^t y^e Record^r grant a warrant to 1 of the constables of this town to leavie upon the estate of Joseph Homes y^e s^ume of 20 sh for letinge a house to and thereby entertaining of Philip Gosse in this towne who is an inhabitant of Roxbury."*

In 1692 he sold to his son Joseph, land in Boston 70x180 "bordering on the sea" for £100. Probably this was for the cooperating business, as the son was in that trade.

* About this time there was a law in force that inhabitants from other towns could not move into Boston without first being voted upon by the selectmen, as well as being vouched for by some one that they would not become public charges. Some very peculiar cases are on record regarding this ordinance, seeming at times almost inhuman. "Nicholas Warner Aged above eighty years was warned to depart out of this Town." "Silvanus Warrow a molatto man being a Lame Cripple" was ordered out of town. A widowed daughter coming home to live with her parents was called upon three times and warned to leave unless her father gave substantial proof that she would not be public charge. (Abstract from Boston Town Records.) For thirty or more years this decree was in effect and strictly enforced in at least scores of cases, perhaps hundreds if one had time and disposition to study the records.

In the adjoining and smaller towns these "warnings" were only given to prevent the person warned from gaining residence, and they were rarely forced to depart, but as said above, the rules in Boston were more rigidly adhered to.

Both he and his son Joseph^a are in the "List of Inhabitants in Boston 1695." (Boston Rec. Com. Rept., No. 1, p. 164.)

In 1696 a petition that the law relating to building with brick be repealed was circulated, and Joseph and Nathaniel^a were signers. (Boston Town Records.)

In 1695-8 the "New Grant" was laid out, afterwards called Dorchester South Precinct, and subsequently Stoughton. Joseph Holmes was assigned at that time forty-four acres, and his lot was number 59. (Hist. of Canton, pp. 5, 595.) This he sold to Thomas Vose of Milton.

Nathaniel^a Holmes (George¹), bricklayer, was born in Roxbury, Feb. 1, 1639, and died there in 1711, probably in February, as his will was proved March 12, 1712.

He married first, Sarah Wiswall, daughter of Thomas Wiswall of Dorchester. (Hist. of Dorchester, p. 139, and Wiswall Gen., p. 1.) She was baptized 12 mo., 1642-3. "She was borne the 19th day of the same mo: beinge the Lords Daye in the eaveninge about sunne setinge." (Dorchester Church Records, p. 155.) No date of her marriage or death has been found.

He married second, in Dorchester, by Capt. Roger Clap, Mar. 27, 1667, Patience Topliffe, born in Dorchester in July, 1644, and died in Roxbury, Mar. 11, 1696, youngest daughter of Clement and Sarah Topliffe.*

He lived in Dorchester after his marriage, later returning to Roxbury. Records show him to have been active in public affairs, holding several offices, including selectman of Roxbury, and representative in the General Court in 1689.

In 1664, Nathaniel Holmes signed a petition to England against King Charles's accession to the throne. In 1667, and for several years after, he was fence viewer, the office at that time being an important and busy one, as there were frequent disputes over boundaries and a great deal of trouble in the trespass of cattle.

He served in King Philip's war, going to Mt. Hope, July 3, 1675, in Capt. Hutchinson's company. (Bodge's "King Philip's War," p. 93.)

He lived in Dedham a while, probably near Roxbury line, afterwards moving to Roxbury.

The following is found in the printed "Abstracts from Dedham Town Records," p. 62, under date of Jan. 1, 1677:

"In Answer to Nathaniel Homes Bricklayer whither he might come to live in the Towne it was put to voat and it past in the Afermitiue."

"The 25. 7. 70 patience y^e wife of Nathaniell Homes & daughter to Clement Toplif was dismissed to Joyn to y^e Church of Rocksbery though not yet in full Comunion with this Church." (Dorchester Church Records, p. 11.)

"23. 8^{mo}. [16]70. Patience wife of Nathaniel Homes admitted but not to full Comunion." (Roxbury Church Records, Boston Rec. Com. Rept., No. 6, p. 90.)

"1684, m. 2, d. 27. Nathaniel Holmes . . . confessed X & w^r received to full communion." (Ibid, p. 97.)

"1684, m. 3, d. 4, Patience Holmes . . . confessed Christ & . . . received to full Comunion." (Ibid, p. 97.)

In 1675 he "served on y^e 2^d Jury for trialls of Appeales & for life limb & banishment." Also served in 1677. (Records of Court of Assistants, Vol. I, pp. 45 and 108.)

1675, Dec. 15, "nathaniell holms" contributed one shilling to the purchase of a bell for the First Church in Dorchester. (See Register, Vol. LIX, p. 106.)

In 1679 he took the oath of allegiance.

June 3, 1685, Nathaniel bought of "Peter Pomphot of Narigasot or Tabagiogo in New England who was Poilot to the English Army in the time of the Indian Warrs . . . Know Yee that for a valuable consideration of forty pounds of Currant pay of New England . . . by Nathaniel Holmes & Samuel Payson both of Roxbury a tract of land being by estimation four Miles in Length & two or three Miles in Bredth as it now lyeth in Naragansot." (Bristol Deeds, Vol. III, p. 213.)

Nov. 24, 1699, Nathaniel being "the surviving Bargaineer" sold his half to Solomon Curtis of Bristol and John Arnold, Blacksmith of Boston. (Ibid, Vol. III, p. 214.)

May 1, 1688, was elected selectman of Roxbury.

"Selectmen met at the house of Nathaniel Homes, 31 Aug., 1688, where male persons upwards of sixteen years of age were assessed a 'single Countrey rate' at one penny in the pound for their estates." (Roxbury Town Records.)

The following reminds us that corn was legal tender: "To Nathaniel Holmes ffor money expended for the purchase of the Acts of the Council, two shillings and sixpence and for the purchase of Rope for the Bell one shilling. Also for mending the Meeting hous dores one shilling and sixpence in Corne." (Roxbury Town Records, 1680.)

As far back as 1689, the spirit which nearly a century after more openly and generally electrified the whole country, began to appear.

"At a General meeting of the Inhabitants of Roxbury . . . upon the sixth day of May, Lt Samuel Ruggles and Nathaniel Holmes were then chosen and authorized to meet the Representatives of the severall Touns assembled at Boston, 9th Instant, and there to Concur and Joyne with them in their Endeavors to settle and Establish A Government." This was on account of a revolutionary proceeding against Gov. Andros in arbitrary rulings, also against his making laws and raising moneys without any assembly or consent of the people. Holmes and Ruggles reported—in short—"that matters rest as they are now." (Roxbury Town Records.)

Nathaniel Holmes heads a list of thirty-two names in a petition, Feb. 7, 1710-1, for a new church "at the west end of Roxbury." (Drake's History of Roxbury, p. 449.)

Mar. 4, 1702, he made his will, probated Feb. 12, 1712, of which the following is a copy, taken from the Probate Record, Vol. 18, p. 65.

I Nathaniel Holmes of Roxbury Considering the Certainty of Death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and withall knowing it to be the Will of God that a Man should set his house in Order before he Depart this Life Do make this my Last Will and Testament as followeth, Imprimis, I freely Resign up my Soul into the Arms of my Merciful Father hoping to be Accepted of him and Saved in his heauenly kingdom mearily by his Free Grace and the Merits and Intercession of his Dear Son. Edward and Giles Payson, brothers, came from Nazing, England ("imbarqued in the Hopewell"), to Roxbury in April, 1635 (see Am. Ancestry, Vol. 6, p. 125, and Vol. 12, p. 64, for further information). The Boston Marriage Record states that "Edward Payson of Woodstock & Thankful Holmes of Dorchester married in Boston, Oct. 29, 1712." In the Old Pomfret Burying Ground at Edward Payson's grave is a high, narrow, fine grained snuff colored stone, entirely devoid of any ornamentation, with letters large and cut very deep. The stone is perfectly upright and appears to have good care. The whole inscription can be clearly read fifty feet away. The children of Edward and Thankful (Holmes) Payson were all born in Pomfret, as follows; 1. Hannah, b. Jan. 13, 1714; d. Jan. 18, 1722. 2. Sarah, b. Mar. 17, 1715; m. John' Holmes (George'), born in Roxbury, in 1643 (?), moved to Dorchester early in life, perhaps at the time of his marriage, but no record can be found of when, where or who he married. The administration of his estate was granted "unto Sara his Relict & Nathaniel Homes his Brother." The Suffolk Co. probate records tell that he "departed this life the 17th of May, 1676." The inventory amounted to £140, and among the items on the list we select a few :

"ffor cart, plough & Cart rope	3	16	6
with horses ffurniture
ffor Cattle of all sorts	14	5	0
ffor housing & Land
with corn on the ground	83	0	0

Sarah Holmes made oath in Court "that this is a just and true Inventory & that when she knows more she will discover the same."

In the Dorchester Town Records we find "At a meeting of the Selectmen the 8: 4: 74. It is ordered that the burying place* shall be fenced in with a stone wall sometime the latter end of this Sumer."

We read at a later date: "14: 7: 74, The Selectmen doe appoint John Homes and Obadiah Hawes to see that it be done by calling upon such men as have teams and hands to keepe an accompt of what is done and to be paid out of the town rate and that the outside be done first and then the sid next to the feild and that it be made fower foot and half high and faced both sids."

That it was well done is evinced by a good part of the same wall being in existence to-day. He is probably interred in the old burying ground he enclosed for others, although no stone has been found to mark his grave.

Sarah, his wife, was admitted member of the Church of Dorchester "y^e 3 (9) 67." (Dorchester Church Records, p. 23.)

"John & Sarah y^e Children of John Homes baptized y^e 5 of y^e 9^m M^o 67 on a thanksgiving day ther mother being admitted y^e Saboth before." (Ibid, p. 176.)

Children, all born in Dorchester:

12. I. JOHN,* b. 1663?; bapt. 5 dy, 9 mo., 1667; d. 1730?
- II. SARAH, b. 16 dy, 9 mo., 1665; bapt. 5 dy, 9 mo., 1667.
- III. MARY, b. 24 dy, 1 mo., 1668.
- IV. GEORGE, b. 26 dy, 11 mo., 1669; bapt. July 10, 1670. In 1690, in a company of soldiers raised in Dorchester for the expedition to Canada, against the French, George Holmes appears as a corporal. Forty-six of the company never returned, many of them having been lost at sea, and George Holmes was no doubt one of the missing, as not a shred of information can be obtained of him.
13. V. SAMUEL, b. 21 dy, 4 mo., 1675; d. Apr. 16, 1725.

Joseph^s Holmes, Jr. (Joseph,^s George'). Born in Dorchester, Nov. 6, 1661. No date of his death has been obtained but probably he died before his father did, for the writer assumes that had he been living at the time of his father's death he, instead of his brother Jonathan, would have been administrator of his father's estate.

* Now called Dorchester North Burying Ground, and is cor. Stoughton St. and Columbia Road, near Upham's Corner. It contains the most ancient tomb-stone inscriptions in the United States, those at Jamestown, Va., not excepted. The yard was first laid out in 1634 and contained but five square rods. It has been enlarged several times, and now has three acres. The first burial was in 1638.

Records are abundant which show that Joseph and his father were associates and harmonious ones, and Joseph being the elder and knowing more about his father's affairs than Jonathan would have been the proper person to settle the estate.

It is likely he never married. Diligent search for his marriage has been made without result.

He took the oath of allegiance in Boston, Nov. 11, 1678. It was perhaps at this time that he and his father moved into Boston. In 1695 he was in the list of inhabitants, but in 1696 his name does not appear on the "brick building petition" (see JOSEPH 2). Neither was he assigned land in the Dorchester South Pricinct Grant in 1695-8, as many of his relatives were.

It is not unreasonable to suppose that as he was associated with fishermen in the cooperage business, he might have taken fishing trips and have been lost at sea.

Nathaniel¹ Holmes (Joseph, George¹*), "Joyner," in one deed called "Joyner alias bricklayer," was born in Dorchester, June 21, 1664. "Nathaniell y^e Sonne of Joseph Homes baptized y^e 10 (5) 64 being about fortnight old or better y^e wife being a member." (Dorchester Church Records, p. 173.)

He died in Boston, July 11, 1711, just after returning from a voyage for his health, but there are no probate records of his estate.

"July 13 [1711], Capt. Nathan¹ Holmes is buried: Bearers, Capt. Fayerweather,* Capt. Williams; Mr. Tay, Darby; Mr. Gallop Merch^t, Tilley.† I and Mr. Deringe went together first; then Mr. Pemberton went with me. None of the Council there but I. But a very few days are pass'd since he came from the Lee-ward Islands." (Sewall's Diary, vol. II, p. 319.)

He was married Oct. 1, 1691, in Boston, by the Rev. John Norton, "the greatest man in prayer of his time," to Sarah Thaxter, born in Hingham, Sept. 26, 1671, daughter of Capt. John and Elizabeth (Jacob) Thaxter.

His widow married, 18 Mar., 1714, in Boston, Judge John Cushing of Hingham and Scituate, as his second wife. Hon. John Cushing was son of Daniel and Elizabeth (Thaxter) Cushing, whose first wife was Deborah Loring, by whom he had nine children. By his second wife, Sarah (Thaxter) Holmes, he had two children: Josiah, born Jan. 29, 1715, married, in 1738, Ruth Thomas and settled in Pembroke: and Mary, born Oct. 24, 1716, married, in 1733, Nathaniel Eels of Hingham.

* John Fayerweather was captain of the Castle at the time of Capt. Holmes' funeral.

† Probably his former partner in the windmill on Fort Hill.

The Cushings and Thaxters were neighbors in Old Hingham in Old England, and became neighbors in New Hingham, in New England.

In 1691 he passed his right in lands at Woodstock, Conn., to Roger Adams.

June 30, 1692, Sarah Holmes "now the married wife of Nathaniel Holmes of Boston, Joyner," for £54 sold her share in land in Hingham inherited from her father, Capt. John Thaxter, to her brother Samuel.

Witnesses, Nathaniel, Rely and Sarah Holmes.

(Suffolk Deeds, vol. 16, p. 188.)

He was interested in military affairs, and was lieutenant, 1705, and afterwards captain, 1709, of a local company. In 1693 he joined the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co., being elected first sergeant in 1695. He was at one time (1702) Lieutenant at the castle, and for a few months was in command.

Nov. 10, 1702:—"Resolved that the Sum of fifty Pounds be allowed and Paid out of the Publick Treasury to the Lieutenant of the Castle for the year currant. And Thirty Pounds to Mr. Nathaniel Holmes the present Lieut of the Castle. He Instructing in the Art of Gunnery Such as Shall be Appointed to learn the Same." (Mass. State Archives, vol. 70, p. 612.)

The previous Lieutenant and chief gunner was Nathaniel (8) Holmes, his cousin.

May 5, 1703, William Tilley sold to Nathaniel Holmes, for £35 10s., "One Full Eighth" part of land eighty-two feet square, "with a Wind Mill Erected thereon," on the "South East corner of Fort Hill," also "One Full Eighth part of the Necessarys Utensils Tools Conveniencys ways Paths Priviledges Apparel Furniture perquisites and appur^{ces} whatsoever." (Suffolk Co. Deeds, vol. 26, p. 8.)

On Apr. 17, 1711, this was sold back to Tilley, the wife Sarah acting as attorney of Nathaniel, he being away for his health in the West Indies. He had previously given power of attorney to his wife Sarah, recorded in Middlesex Co. Deeds, vol. 15, p. 115.

Nov. 16, 1704, the Provincial Council, after arguing for four years, came to a settlement over salaries of the soldiers for 1700. The following paragraph is taken from Mass. Archives, vol. 48, p. 367. It also appears in Provincial Laws, Vol. VIII, p. 380. "Council established salary of various officers, and among those named y^e Capt of y^e Castle for y^t year & m^r Nathaniell Holms the then Lieu^t who was y^t post in 1700." Nathaniel served again in the early part of 1703.

"Jan. 28, 1705.—Liberty is granted to L^t Nath^l Holmes to burn brick and Lime for the Space of one year next ensuing on his Land Scituate between the Land Rich^d Paine & the Land formerly Nicholas Baxter over against the land of Joseph Allen at the South End of Boston." (Boston Selectmen's Records.)

This land he bought of his father Joseph (2) May 1st, 1690, for "£150 in Silver money," with dwelling and barn. Evidently this was not land enough for his use, for he bought "the land of Joseph Allen," three-quarters of an acre for £151.

In 1706 he served as "Tythinge Man" for Boston.

Mar. 5, 1707.—In the expedition to Nova Scotia and Acadia against the French, Capt. Nathaniel was appointed "to view and approve all gunpowder to be sent on the present expedition that it be good and fit for the service." One hundred barrels was the quantity taken at £12 pr barrel.

The expedition departed the 12th of May for Port Royal, and Nathaniel was captain of one of the company of grenadiers. (Province Laws, Vol. VIII, p. 690.) About the close of the trouble Capt. Holmes was "sick and unserviceable" and the bills of his medicine and attendance were paid by the Province, Nov. 5, 1707. (Mass. Archives, Vol. 71, p. 451.) This expedition no doubt laid the foundation to a decline, for he was never well afterwards, and he went to the West Indies for an extended stay. In reading the reports one can see that he was harrassed by both his superiors and his men. He was responsible for a great deal, yet did not hold high enough commission to carry authority. He allowed his soldiers clothing to the amount of £38, paying for the same from his own pocket, which the soldiers were to pay out of their wages, but as they did not receive their wages, of course Capt. Holmes was out that much. He petitioned the Council that he be re-imbursed from the public treasury. On July 3, 1708, the Council voted to allow £17, 10^s 9^d, which was a trifle more than half.

Aug. 4, 1708, Nathaniel Holmes sold for £350 to Henry Hill a parcel of land bounded by Summer, South and Essex Streets, which he had "purchased of Joseph Alline," called the "Southerly end of Boston" in the deed . . . "together with all houses barns stables outhouses fframes edifices buildings easements wells waters fruit trees and fences thereupon standing rights members hereditaments ways water courses common of pasture feeding wharffage Dockage profits priviledges and appur^{ces} whatsoever."

After selling his place at the south end he bought of Timothy Cutler, anchormsmith, Charlestown, a piece of marsh land of "seavon" acres for £66, called "Dirty Marsh," now part of the site of the U. S. Navy Yard. He must have owned other parcels of land in that vicinity, for Dec. 30, 1709, "Sarah, wife and Attorney of Capt. Nathaniel Holmes of Boston, but at p^rsent on a Voyage at Sea," for £30, sells to Paul Dudley land in Charlestown near "Dirty Marsh." Witnesses, Deborah Cushing and Thomas Cushing (her relatives). Jan. 9, 1710, she sold to John Eliot of Windsor, Connecticut, for £50 the "Dirty Marsh" lot. He had two years to pay for it. (Middlesex Deeds, vol. xv.)

"At a meeting of y^e Sel men Jan^y 23th 1709, Sarah y^e wife of Capt. Nath^l Holmes her Petition to Sell Strong drinck as a retaylor at her present dwelling House at y^e South end of y^e Town is allowed by y^e Selectmen."

At a "Meeting Oct. 22, 1711, Mary Willard, Widd^o & Sarah Holmes Widd^o their respective Petition for Lycence to Sell drinck as Innholders w^r approved by y^e Sel men." This license was again granted in 1712.

Whether this Sarah was the widow of Nathaniel (6) cannot be definitely ascertained. According to the mode of thought of the present generation, one would hardly suppose that such a highly gifted man as John Cushing, an eminent jurist, a wealthy and influential citizen, and of an aristocratic family, would marry a bar-maid or have his wedding in a rum shop. Roberts, the historian of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co., credits her as being the widow of the subject of this sketch. But the "retaylor of drinck" was most likely the wife and widow of one Capt. Nathaniel Holmes, a sea captain sailing out of Boston about that time who, according to Wyman in his "Charlestown Estates," started away on a voyage in May, 1709. Perhaps he never returned.

Jonathan' Holmes (Joseph,' George'). Born in Dorchester in 1676; died in Boston, Aug. 17, 1744.

He married (first) in Boston, Feb. 26, 1702, Sarah Marshall, born in 1678, baptized in the First Church in Boston, Jan. 10, 1697, died in Boston, Aug. 6, 1739, daughter of Samuel Marshall.

Jonathan and Sarah are buried in King's Chapel Burying Ground, their headstones still standing and well preserved.

He married (second) Feb. 21, 1740, by the pastor of Brattle Street Church, for which he paid £1—0s.—0d, marriage fee, Katherine Hammett, who died in Boston at the close of the year 1753; her estate was administered upon Jan. 4, 1754 (Suffolk Probate Records, vol. 48, p. 610). The inventory mentioned "house and land on Brattle St., near Wing's Lane," now Elm St., value £80 (Ibid, vol. 49, p. 28). Katherine Hammett's maiden name was Clark; she was married four times, each time in Boston. She married (first) Feb. 15, 1712, John Braman; second, Apr. 15, 1729 (intentions published) Robert Hammett; she had by him a daughter, Katherine Hammett, who married in Boston, Nov. 5, 1754, Edward Jarvis; third, Jonathan Holmes; fourth, Feb. 15, 1745, Christopher Pate, "a mariner." Jonathan Holmes was a mariner, and the writer understands he was captain of a fishing smack. His home was on Brattle Street, where he owned some property.

Feb. 7, 1716, Jonathan, called "Fisherman," sold to Adam Winthrop of Boston "1½ upland Scituate lying and being in that part of the Great neck in the Township of Dorchester commonly called the Nook . . . partly bounded by Salt Marsh late of my Father Joseph Holmes." Sarah, his wife, signed, and Thomas Marshall, witness. (Suffolk Deeds, vol. 31, p. 3.)

Dec. 31, 1724, "Jonathan, Elizabeth Cushing of Scituate, Lydia Greenwood of Rehoboth, Sarah Salter of Boston, all Grandchildren or Great-Grandchildren to Capt. Roger Clap late of Dorchester, Deceased, Send Greeting," etc. For £13 they sold to Ebenezer Clap their shares in their right of Roger Clap in "Twelve Divisions and other Divisions" (Ibid., vol. 40, p. 230).

Jonathan Holmes's Will.

"In the name of God amen This Twenty ninth Day of January Anno Dom^o 1742/43 I Jonathan Holmes of Boston in the County of Suffolk in New England Cooper & Fisherman being in Years and not knowing how soon God may Call Me hence Do therefore make & Ordain this to be my Last will & Testament Imp^{es} I resign my Soul into the hands of God hoping for Mercy thro Our Lord Jesus Christ and a Joyful Resurrection to Eternal Life my Body I commit to the Earth to be decently buried and after my Debts & Funeral Charges are paid and defreyed I give devise & bequeath all the rest of my little Estate God has given Me in this World to my Loving Wife Katherine Holmes for & during her Life and to Sell & Improve it for her Good if need be and at her Death what remains of mine I give it one half to Mr Joseph Marshall of Milford in Connecticut Merchaut and the other half to Mary Cavendish & Edward Humphreys my Wifes Cousins" . . .

This will was probated Sept. 14, 1744. No information of any kind has been found to indicate that he ever had any children.

Nathaniel' Holmes (Nathaniel,' George'), born in Dorchester, Mar. 15, 1668, was baptized Oct. 30, 1670, at the same time as his brother Ebenezer.

Oct. 21, 1688, Nathaniel and Ebenezer Holmes took hold of the Covenant, with ten others. (Roxbury Church Records, Boston Rec. Com. Rept., No. 6, p. 100.) Nathaniel was a soldier. He never married. He died June 12, 1699, killed by the bursting of a gun at Castle Island. All the records we have of him show that most of his life was given to military service, but that he was not promptly paid, the following petition, copied from State Archives, vol. 107, p. 195, will show:

"To the Honoured Gov^r & Concell,

The following is a copy of an original letter now preserved in Mass. Archives, vol. 36, p. 181, and explains itself. It would appear that part of the letter is missing, for it is addressed to no one, and the first line is at the extreme top of the page, as if there were a missing previous page:

"All that I have to say is That I Think if covenant that there should be five or six men att least that should be better instructed than ordinary in managing off y^e Great Guns and that will never be untell we have Sum appointed to that A and that thay have sum In coxagment ffor able men to Engage in that Serviss. ffor as men Shift and change so often it is never the (no uss to pretend†) to reach them neither do they care ffor Leaving‡ becoss they are to stay but a Little whille. No doubt he carried his point, for the Archives in vol. 70, p. 321, tell us the following:

Dec. 8, 1696, "Voted, That Nathaniel Holmes, the present Gunner at the Castle be Commissioned as Lieutenant and Chief Gunner there and for his encouragement to instruct the Souldiers in Gunnery That he be allowed fourscore pound: for the year ensuing."

On June 12, 1699, at a celebration provided for Richard, Earl of Bellomont, who was the new Governor of the Province, two lives were lost by the bursting of a gun. An account of this is given in John Marshall's* Diary. This is in possession of the Mass. Historical Society, and covers from 1697 to 1711. We copy from the Proceedings of said Society, vol. 1, 2d series, pp. 153-4.

"1699, May." Under this date he describes the entertainment of his excellency Richard of Bellomont. The description of the festivities ends thus: "Then came the troops and other gentlemen: the drums beat, the trumpets did sound, the Coullors weere displayed; the cannons and ordinance from the ships and fortifications did roar; all manner of expressions of Joy: and to end all Fireworks and good drink at night."

"June. His excellency went to view the Castle on June 12: and discharging some of the cannon their according to the usuall manner on such occasions, one broke, and two men weer killed one the same minute: the chiefe gunner his name was Nathaniel Holmes. one other named Samuel Proctor dyed four days after." (He was probably son of Samuel Proctor of Dorchester. See Gen. Reg., vol. xi, p. 173.) Supply Clap, son of Capt. Roger Clap, lost his life in the same manner, Mar. 5, 1686.

The following is a copy of the original document on file in the Mass. Archives, vol. 70, p. 407, regarding the expenses of the funeral:

Ebenezer¹ Holmes (Nathaniel,² George¹), husbandman, was born in Dorchester, in 1669, baptized with his brother Nathaniel, Oct. 30, 1670, and died in Stoughton, Feb. 1, 1746.

He married (first) in Boston, Feb. 2, 1692, Sarah Withington, born in Dorchester, Feb. 20, 1659, and died there, Dec. 18, 1696, daughter of Henry and Sarah (Tolman) Leadbetter and widow of Henry Withington, son of Deacon Richard and Elizabeth (Eliot) Withington. He married (second) in Dorchester, Aug. 5, 1697, Mary George, born in Boston, Feb. 9, 1658, and died in Dorchester, Oct. 18, 1732, daughter of Nathaniel and Isabel Wales and widow of Nicholas George, Jr., who died in Boston, April 9, 1691.

In 1710 he sold land in Dorchester bordered by the west bank of "Naponsett" river. In 1718 he entered a dissent against the Indian tenants having liberty to vote.

March 28, 1727, "Ebenezer Holmes and wife Mary (which Mary is granddaughter to Nathaniel Wales, late of Boston, Dec^d and an Heir to part of his estate) in consideration of seven Pounds paid by Joseph Weld of Roxbury, yeoman" sold one-twentieth part of common lands laid out in Dorchester, and now in Stoughton. (Suffolk Co. Deeds, vol. 57, p. 20.) Also this year he sold personal property £350 to his son Ebenezer, Jr., of Roxbury.

* His mother's brother.

He and his son Nathaniel both lost money in the Robert Auchmuty's "Manufacturing Co." scheme. Auchmuty was a Royalist, was exiled to England, where he died in 1788. (See Drake's History of Roxbury.) In 1741 he sold his place to his son Nathaniel, and in 1745 they both moved to Stoughton.

Ichabod⁵ Holmes (Nathaniel,⁶ George¹). Born in Roxbury, Nov. 14, 1674, and died in Woodstock (then Massachusetts, now in Connecticut), Jan. 20, 1717.

He never married.

He was one of the soldiers at the Castle ; and the following petition was accidentally discovered by the writer while looking for something else :

"Octob^r 20, 1702. The Humble Pet^r of the Sould^r belonging to her Maj^{ties} Castle.

That we yo^r Pet^{rs} are very hardly put to it, for the want of Bedding to keep us Warne. Wee find it Very Cold already which moves us to Supplicate yo^r Excell^y & Honours in time the Winter comeing on. It is so hard with us That some of us are forced to Lye upon y^e boards. Wee hope yo^r Hon^{rs} Pardon as wee are in Duty bound shall for Ever Pray &c." Signed by "ECCA^B HOMES" and thirty others. (Mass. Archives, vol. 70, p. 587.)

July 5, 1706, he went to Woodstock, where he bought of Ebenezer Ware and others sixty acres of land. His name is not on the original list of "go-ers," but he was not many years behind.

There are several transactions in land recorded in Ichabod's name in Worcester Co. Registry of Deeds, as Woodstock belonged then to Massachusetts ; but we only give two here to show the phraseology of that time :

Jan. 11, 1710-11, "John Ruggles* Secundus of Roxbury" sold to Ichabod Holmes for "y^e full & Compleat Sum of fourteen pounds, Current Money" No. 63 in 3d range, 26 acres.

And the deed further states :

Also ~~SARAH~~, y^e wife of Said John Ruggles of her free Consent hath put to her hand & seal the Day & year Aboves^d."

The other one, found in vol. 2, p. 278, is dated Mar. 3, 1711, and there is not a punctuation mark in it from beginning to end :

Jehoshaphat[†] Holmes (Nathaniel[†] George¹). Born in Roxbury, Nov. 11, 1690, although his gravestone in Pomfret, Conn., states his age as 54 yrs. 5 mos. 15 dys. at date of death, June 1, 1745.

He married in Pomfret, July 4, 1715, Sarah Waldo, born in Boston and baptized there, Dec. 6, 1691, according to the records of the Second Church. Her grave stone in Pomfret states she died May 13, 1742, aged 49 ys. 5 mos. She was the daughter of John and Rebecca (Adams) Waldo. (Her aunt Rebecca Waldo married Rev. Joseph Emerson and they were the ancestors of Ralph Waldo Emerson.) Jehoshaphat was among the first settlers in Connecticut and was a prominent man in Pomfret. He was chosen "lister" in 1716, Selectman in 1719 and '20, and Town Clerk and Treasurer in 1718. To the last office he was elected in every succeeding year until his death. He was also clerk of the church for many years, which office he also held at death. He was appointed Justice of the Peace for Windham Co. in May, 1729 (Col. Rec. Vol. 5, p. 225).

Jehoshaphat's will was proved at a Probate Court, held in Plainfield, Conn., June 11, 1745 (Probate Court Records, Windham, Conn., Vol. III., p. 223). There is not a single punctuation mark in the whole will.

Sarah, Rebecca and Jehoshaphat were given £63—10s each, in the first clause of the will.

The furniture "or moveable Within Doors" were given to his sons Nathaniel and Ebenezer "to be set off" later to his three youngest daughters Ann, Esther and Abigail. Ann was to have £50 within one year after his death. His son John was to receive £50 when reached twenty-one. Esther to have £50 within three years.

Nathaniel had the western half with the buildings. Ebenezer had the eastern half, except Nathaniel to have the wood growing on six acres of Ebenezer's land, if Nathaniel allowed Ebenezer six acres of tillage land.

"my Will Is That In Consideration of Nathaniels part being The betor of The two my Will is That he pay one hundred pounds more than his

JEHOSHAPHAT HOLMS.

"Dated 10th Day of march and dom 1743(4.)"

The complete will covers two and one-half finely written pages. Descendants of Jehoshaphat still live on these two farms; Mr. Henry Perrin Holmes on the eastern or Ebenezer part and his sister Mrs. Towne lives on the western or Nathaniel part. They are situated about two miles east of Pomfret Centre, towards Putnam.

Thomas Ruggles and John Graves both dying within a few days of each other in 1644, is commented on by Eliot as follows: "These two brake the knot first of the Nazing Christians. I mean they first dyed of all those Christians y^t came fro y^t towne in England." Edward Ruggles was a long time one of the deacons of the first church in Roxbury. (Eliot's.) He was born in Roxbury, lived a while in Pomfret, then in Cambridge, where he died. He is buried in Eustis St. burying ground, in which John Eliot and associates are buried. His gravestone is well preserved and was elaborately made.

John' Holmes (John,' George'). Born in Dorchester, in 1663(?), baptized there with his sister Sarah, Nov. 5; 1667, and died in Colchester, Conn., sometime after 1730, perhaps in 1748 [See copy of court record a few lines farther on]. The History of New London Co., p. 387, states that John Holmes and Josiah Gates were living in Colchester in 1730.

John went to Dedham in 1682 or a few years previous, probably with his brother Samuel into that part of Dedham, now Readville. We find him taxed in Dedham Town Records for many things, the last entry being Dec. 15, 1677. He lived a while in Roxbury. In January 1689 he was granted a piece of land in Stow, where he settled and married there (first) about 1690, Elizabeth Gates, born in Marlborough in 1671, died in Colchester, Dec. 14, 1726, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Freeman) Gates of Stow.

He married (second) in Franklin, Conn., Dec. 3, 1729, Ann Rockwell, born in Windsor(?), Conn., Jan. 18, 1704, and died in Colchester(?), daughter of John and Anne (Skinner) Rockwell.

Mar. 25, 1697, he sold his grant of land, as follows:

"In the ninth year of the reign of our sovereign Lord William, King of England," etc., "between John Holmes of Stow, within his Majesties province of the Massachusetts bay in New England Carpenter and Elizabeth his wife" sells to John Stevens for £15 "the house lott originally granted to said Holmes by the town of Stow, Jan. 13, 1689 on both sides of Heather Medow Brook."

This deed was not recorded until May 18, 1748.

"At a Court held Third Tuesday in May 1748 Personally appeared Cap^t Jacob Stevens one of the Witnesses to the above Instrument and made oath that he was present and saw John Holmes and Elizabeth Holmes the Grantors therein Mentioned both now deceased sign seal and execute the same." (See Middlesex Deeds, vol. 46, p. 522.)

May 13, 1700, an agreement was made between Mr. Evelyth and the town that he be settled as the minister. John Holmes was one of the signers.

After his children grew up he removed to Colchester, Conn., where he was voted an inhabitant, Dec. 22, 1718.

The early history of Colchester contains many pioneers named Gates which perhaps may account for John's removal there from Stow. He became prominent in Colchester, serving the town in various offices.

Children, all by first wife, and all born in Stow:

- L. ELIZABETH,⁴ b. about 1692; d. in Colchester, May 27, 1760; m. in Colchester, Dec. 12, 1717, Deacon SAMUEL LOOMIS, b. in Colchester, July 17, 1692, and d. there July 10, 1753, son of Deacon Samuel and Elizabeth (White) Loomis. No children. In her will, dated Apr. 14, 1760, proved July 7, 1750, she left her estate to her brother John Holmes, to heirs of her deceased brother George Holmes, to her sister Dorothy wife of Clement Daniels, to Mary wife of John Way, to Sarah wife of Thomas Gustin, and niece Ann Worthington, daughter of her sister Ann Lovett.

Samuel Holmes (John,² George¹). Born in Dorchester, June 21, 1675; died in Dedham, Apr. 16, 1725.

He married (first) in Dedham, Dec. 26, 1693, Mary Ballard, born in Dedham, May 29, 1669, and died there Mar. 30, 1705, probably daughter of Benjamin and Martha (Pudge) Ballard. (The Ballard pedigree is so uncertain that it is difficult to place this parentage with accuracy.) This marriage is also recorded in Dorchester.

He married (second) in Dedham, about 1706, Mary Ellis, born in Dedham, Mar. 24, 1761; died there Jan. 30, 1752, daughter of Joseph and Ruth (Morse) "Ellice."

He was known as Capt. Holmes and settled in that part of Dedham that is now Readville, and was the ancestor of the Holmeses of Sharon and Canton.

He sold his place June 1, 1719, to William Ballard, his wife's brother, for £235. The deed reads "eighteen acres with dwelling house, barn . . . Together with all the fences, trees, Grass, herbage, Stones and Waters . . . lying in Dedham." July 2d of the same year he bought the old Governor Stoughton farm on "Buttermilk Plain" on the westerly side of the Neponset River, in what is now Norwood, near a bridge then known as "Woodward's Bridge." It consisted of one hundred and eleven acres, for which he paid £497 in "Bills of Credit." He borrowed £265 and gave mortgage to William Hutchinson, Esq. (Suffolk Deeds, vol. 34, p. 74.) Gov. Stoughton had no children and this farm fell into the possession of his niece, Elizabeth Nelson. She and her husband sold it to Capt. Holmes.

At the April meeting, 1697, "Eleven pounds, eight shillings & a penny was payed" for the "Maintinance of the Schoole," (Dedham Records, vol. iii, p. 245.) Samuel Holmes was on the "list of payers." In 1697 and for many years after, his name is in a list of "perticuler persons to our Pastors salary." He was a "perticuler Inhabitant" for many things. He was in the list "for re-paying the meeting house to be payed in money Corn and labor." He was also taxed "to pay money or corn" in Dedham in 1697 and 1698.

The administration of his estate shows

Imp ^{ms} The Homestead containing about ninety one acres and housing .	£	s

Item. Ten acres of meadow and swamp called "Doctors Corners"		75 - 0

The whole estate footed up £924. It was divided between his older sons Samuel and John, subject to "widow's third," they paying the minor children their shares in each. An agreement was afterward made with the widow to occupy the house and cultivate land near the house for life. The three younger children had the privilege of choosing their guardians. Ebenezer chose John Ellis, his uncle, Joseph chose Samuel Ellis, his cousin, Nathaniel chose his mother.

In the account rendered by the administrator, the following items appear among others :

The funeral customs grew to be such a heavy tax, that in 1721 and later (1741) the General Court enacted that no gloves (except six pairs to the bearers and one pair to the minister), wine, rum or rings be given at any funeral upon penalty of fifty pounds.

John⁴ Holmes (Nathaniel,³ Joseph,² George¹). Born in Boston, Apr. 11, 1702, baptized in the Old South Church, April 12, 1702, and died some time after 1753. There was a John Holmes died in Yarmouth, Me., Aug. 14, 1758, a man with no family, and no relatives there. As his two brothers, Nathaniel and George, were owners of land in that vicinity, it is possible that this may have been the John in question.

He was probably never married, although Dean, in his history of Scituate, states that this John married Susanna Briggs.

July 9, 1753, he was paid £12, 5s from the estate of his brother George (Suffolk Probate Record). The writer assumes he was employed in his brother's store.

Boston marriages and intentions of marriages were well kept then, and as John belonged to a prominent family, his brothers being wealthy and influential, it would be likely that John's marriage, had there been one, would have been recorded.

Nathaniel⁴ Holmes (Nathaniel,³ Joseph,² George¹). Born in Boston, Dec. 29, 1703, baptized in the Old South Church, Jan. 2, 1704, died in Boston, Nov. 29, 1774, and probably is buried in Copp's Hill Burying Ground.

He married (first) in Boston, Mar. 1, 1726, Mary Webber, born in Charlestown (Old Church Records), July 4, 1708, died in Boston, July 16, 1742 (Copp's Hill g. s.), daughter of Nathaniel (an extensive lumber dealer and saw mill owner) and Elizabeth () Webber.

He was married (second) in Boston, by Rev. Andrew Eliot, Oct. 1, 1747, to Rebecca Goodwill, born in Boston May 15, 1717, died there in 1800 (her estate was administered upon June 10th of that year), daughter of Thomas* and Rebecca (Blackman) Goodwill. She inherited considerable property from her father.

* Thomas Goodwill was a shipwright, of the firm of Grant & Goodwill. In 1745 he subscribed £10 towards the expense of putting "a Ring of 8 Bells for Christ Church." The Goodwill tomb is on the wall dividing the old and new burial grounds of Copp's Hill, and he has an imposing monument near by. Mr. and Mrs. Goodwill presented their daughter Lydia with a silver tankard made by the father of Paul Revere, inscribed Sept. 7, 1747, and has initials T. R. G. on the handle. This is now in the possession of Mr. William H. Emery of Newton, he being a descendant of John Bishop.

Nathaniel Holmes's residence was on Middle St., now a part of Hanover St. He was admitted a member of the New North Church (then called) June 11, 1724.

A large number of transactions in land are recorded in the Suffolk Registry of Deeds, showing that he owned "property on Copps Hill and other parts of Boston, in Cambridge, leading to the landing place," in Maine in "District of Cape Elizabeth" being "all the common land that may be found between Thomas Woodbury's and the Ministerial Lots" (Cumberland, Me., Deeds, vol. v, p. 315). Also in Malden and Rowley. The deeds, mortgages, agreements, etc., show him in early life, a "Joynor or cabinet maker," then a "distiller" and in later life a "merchant."

His son-in-law, William Fowle, was at one time in partnership with him. The Boston Gazette, under date of Jan. 25, 1773, states that the "Copartnership of Holmes & Fowle is mutually dissolved" and "Those indebted are desired to pay their respectable balances to said Holmes." Also under the same notice he says he has a house in Williams Court "to Let" . . . with good garden and paved yard." In 1735 he went into the distilling business.*

The heirs of Elizur Holyoke offered their distillery for sale, and Nathaniel Holmes, called "Joyner," in the deed, bought it and paid (1735) to Jacob Holyoke £250, to Jacob Burrell (1735) £510 and (1739) to Mary Arnold £500. (Suff. Deeds, vol. 55, p. 140.) This distillery was situated on Back Street (now part of Salem Street), and was "near the Anabaptist Meeting House," the deed tells us, but as a matter of fact the two properties joined, both extending back to the mill pond (since filled in, the present Haymarket Square being very nearly what was the centre of it). Probably Nathaniel wished to enlarge the business, for Feb. 5, 1740, he sells one-third interest for £1,833 to Malachi Salter, Jr., his nephew, and Mar. 3, 1740, he sells one-third interest to George Holmes, merchant, his brother, £1,833. The business must have been prosperous, or else many improvements must have been made, for in April, 1743, Salter sold out his third to his uncles Nathaniel and George for £3,000.

* To show the extent of this industry the following is taken from a "Report of His Majesty's Agent" in 1750 on file in State Archives, Vol. 64, p. 379:

"To the R^t Hon^{ble} the Lord Commissioner of his Majesty's Treasury. The under written Agent for his Majesty Province of Massachusetts Bay begs leave humbly to represent to your Lordship.

That in the Prov of Mass Bay there are Sixty three Distilling houses for the making of Rum from Molasses. The Produce of which is employ'd as Merchandise upon the Coast of Guinea, upon the Banks of Newfoundland . . . for the consumption of about Nine hundred Vessels engaged in the various branches of their Trade at Sea."

From 1714 to 1742 this traffic was brisk in Boston, the product going into the British Colonies and even into Africa. Price's "Plan of Boston" has eight still houses marked between Essex Street and the Mill Pond opposite Charlestown. After 1742, the trade fell off nearly one-half, but regained in the latter part of the century to such an extent that there were eighteen distilleries in full operation in Boston.

Nathaniel⁴ Holmes's will, which is quite voluminous, was admitted to probate Dec. 9, 1774. His widow, Rebecca, sole executrix, had "one-third of all Rents, Incomes & Profits of Real Estate," also one-third of personal estate; "Daughter Rebecca to have Rents, Incomes and Profits of Farm and Land at Malden; Sugar House, Land & Premises in Back Street & My Houses & Lands in Charles Street in Boston; Also one third of the personal estate, provided she live in the Town of Boston, but may live out of it, if she has her mothers Consent."

The daughter Lydia had "one third of Brick House & Land where I now dwell in middle street" (now Hanover St.), "My House & Land in Williams Court, My House & Land in School St. all in Boston & My House, Bake House and Land in Cambridge." He also gave her "£300 to be paid to her at her marriage for fitting her off." He ordered his executrix "to sell Real Estate and lands in Falmouth, Kennebec and Chelsea." Other parcels of real estate were, "Small Tenement in Bennett St.; 3 Dwelling Houses, 2 Stores, wharf and land at Point Shirley; Mills in Georgetown; Twenty acres of land lying in Cape Elizth Survey; $\frac{1}{2}$ schooner Sally; Sch. Elizabeth; $\frac{1}{4}$ Sch. William; $\frac{1}{4}$ Sloop America." But notwithstanding so many parcels, the appraisal footed only £3,805. Among items of personal property were mentioned "1 Negro Girl ab 12 y^m old £20"; "1 Negro Girl £24"; "1 Negro boy £20."

His house must have been furnished luxuriously for those days, for in the inventory we find china, glass, a globe, pictures, book cases, expensive mirrors, napkins, "White mens waistcoats," etc.

In the Boston Gazette, dated Dec. 12, 1774, is the following:

"All Persons who have any Demands on the Estate of Nathaniel Holmes of Boston, deceased, are desired to bring their Accounts to Rebecca Holmes Executrix for Adjustment." "William Fowle ACQUAINTS the Public That he carries on the Sugar Baking Business at the Sugar House formerly Occupied by the late Nathaniel Holmes, deceased, Where he has Sugar, Molasses Cheap for Cash."

George^a Holmes (Nathaniel,^a Joseph,^a George¹), distiller and merchant, was born in Boston in 1706 (?), and died in 1752. His will was made Oct. 12, 1752, while "Being Sick and Weak in Body," and admitted to probate Nov. 29, 1752.

He married, July 7, 1737, in Boston, Ann Mulberry, born in Boston in 1715, died there in January 1779, daughter of Benjamin and Ann (Everton) Mulberry. Mr. Holmes was admitted a member of the New Brick Church,* July 25, 1742, and was chosen deacon, Apr. 10, 1747. He was one of the Selectmen of Boston, in 1750, '51, '52. In 1740 he went into partnership with his brother Nathaniel in the distilling business, afterwards (1750) sole owner of a distillery. He also owned a sugar refinery. The distillery was managed by Andrew Symmes (most likely father of Col. Andrew Symmes), who continued to manage after the death of George Holmes, although the latter's son Benjamin Mulberry Homes was nominally the manager. After a number of sales backward and forward between the heirs, the distillery was bought in 1798 by William Smith and John Bishop (m. Lydia, dau. of Nathaniel 15), both of Medford, who bought all the still-house property of both Nathaniel and George Holmes, Mr. Bishop having been interested in the business for several years.

In his will he left his wife but £300 if she should marry before the youngest child should reach twenty-one. He named, with his wife Ann, his "good friend Samuel Grant"† as executors. In place of Samuel Grant, the son Benjamin Mulberry^{} was to be executor with his mother, after he arrived at the age of twenty-one. On Feb. 26, 1779, Ann Holmes being deceased, and Benjamin Mulberry^{} Holmes an absentee, Col. Andrew Symmes was appointed executor. The property was not fully divided until 1779.* The inventory amounted to £3,134 personal estate and £11,050 real estate; that of the personal estate showed that he kept a general store, hardware, books, groceries, cloth, etc. The items 180 galls Vinegar and a Negro woman were on the same line. Among the other articles mentioned were "46 p's Garters, 60 yds Irish stuff £3-3s-3d; 12 hhds salt; 164 barrels flour" were valued "£240; 24,768 lbs loaf sugar £980; 5549 blue paper at 4c per lb. 572 Sugar molds. An Horse & Chais £12. Cash in Mr. Holmes house £73-10s."

The real estate inventory showed land in Falmouth, Me., and property and mortgages in Boston and near by towns. In the account was an item "July 9, 1753, paid John Holmes £12-5s." This was undoubtedly a brother to George.

Dea. Nathaniel¹ Holmes (Ebenezer,² Nathaniel,³ George¹), "yeoman, alias cordwainer," was born in Dorchester, Apr. 30, 1698, and died in Stoughton, May 8, 1790.

He married first, Dec. 5, 1723, in Boston, Sarah Withington, born Aug. 17, 1702, died Dec. 1, 1756, daughter of Philip and Thankful (Pond) Withington; and married second, Nov. 15, 1758, Sarah Ellis, born June 21, 1699, died Sept. 3, 1778 (grave-stone), daughter of Joseph and Dorothy Ellis of Dedham.

Aug. 16, 1724, "Nath Holmes laid hold of y^e Covenant." Dorchester Church Records, p. 235.) June 11, 1727, "Admitted unto Full Com: Nath. Holmes & His wife." (Ibid, p. 239.)

He was a partner in the Land Bank scheme of 1740, an unfortunate financial experiment,—an attempt to issue currency based upon real estate. At one time it was quite popular, the towns voting to take Land Bank notes for taxes.

He moved to Stoughton in 1742, where he held many town offices and was an influential and highly respected citizen. He was the first deacon of the first church at its organization. He was the ancestor of all of the name of Holmes in that section. He lived just south of the centre, on what is now Morton St., and the old cellar-hole of his house is still to be seen (1904).

He was in the Colonial War in Benj. Johnson's Co., Col. Miller's reg't, and belonged to the alarm list. He served thirty-seven weeks after Apr. 18, 1757. In the Crown Point expedition he is reported, Aug. 1, 1757, as "Deacon, Father or master Ebenezer Holmes." (Mass. Archives, vol. 95, pp. 279 and 442.)

In 1764 he deeded to his sons real estate in Stoughton, viz: to Samuel eighty acres with buildings for £80; to Nathaniel, fifty-one acres and buildings for £66; to Philip, fifty-one acres and buildings for £66; to John, ninety acres and buildings, also seven acres in another parcel, £300. (Suffolk Co. Deeds, vol. 102, p. 27.) He had no children by his second wife.

Children by first wife, all born in Dorchester, except Obedience:

He was a practising physician in Stoughton, where he d. and was buried. His grave, as well as that of his wife, is marked by a stone in a good state of preservation. His place of fifty-four acres with buildings was sold to Samuel Brackett by Nathaniel¹ Holmes (31), his brother-in-law, who was administrator of the estate. Children: 1. Sarah, b. Nathaniel' Holmes (Jehoshaphat,' Nathaniel,' George'). A farmer, born in Pomfret, Conn., July 5, 1723. Date and place of death not ascertained, but he was alive in 1783.

He married first, Nov. 11, 1742, in Brooklyn, Conn, "Desier' Spicer, and married second, Apr. 21, 1748, in Pomfret, Mary Moores. The death of this Mary is recorded as Feb. 10, 1752. He married third, Jan. 4, 1753, in Pomfret, Mary Jordan, born in Stoughton, June 17, 1723, admitted to the Church in Pomfret, Nov. 14, 1756, daughter of Thomas and Olive Jordan.

Nathaniel inherited the western half of his father's farm, which was the part on which was situated the Jehoshaphat house, the site being now occupied by Mrs. Mary Elizabeth (Holmes) Towne, a descendant.

March 22, 1755, Nathaniel bought in Pomfret for £15, of Ebenezer Grosvenor "a Parcel of Land Lying and being in Pomfret." This joined land already owned by Nathaniel. This deed was signed and sealed "the 22^d Day of Month In y^e 28th Year of y^e Reign of our Sovereign Lord George y^e 2^d of Gfeat Britain—&c King annoque Domini, 1755."*

In 1777, he bought land of Joseph Utley. Mar. 11, 1783, Nathaniel bought land and buildings of Barnabas Wood, called in the deed "one hundred and three and thirty perch, Being all the Land I own in Pomfret."

He first, probably before marriage, affiliated with the church in Abington, Conn., which was then a part of Pomfret. He inherited the eastern half of his father's farm, to which he added a number of acres, where he lived and died. Oftentimes a bear would be seen in close proximity to the back door by Mrs. Holmes. There is no doubt but what Ebenezer was a dressy man, for his inventory, amounting to £409, had in it a far larger amount of clothing than was usual in a man of his means; Nankeen trousers, bear skin coats, great-coats, broadcloth coats, etc. In the list of assets was "a Note of Hand ag^t Lem^t Holmes £75" (his son probably).

Capt. George^t Holmes (John,^t John,^t George^t). Born in Stow in 1694 (?) and died in Colchester, Conn., Apr. (?) 1759. His will was dated Feb. 6, 1759, and proved May 8, 1759.

He went from Stow to Colchester, where he was lister in 1727, a surveyor 1726-1730. He was tax collector for many years. He was agent of the New Salem parish to the General Court in 1743, and was appointed by that court to collect taxes on all unimproved lands for the support of the gospel ministry. He married, Mar. 31, 1730, Hannah Crane of Dedham, who died at South Dedham, "Dec. 25, 1764, aged nearly seventy years."

It will be noticed that he and his two sons died within a few days of each other. About this time and a few years previous there were a great many deaths, sometimes several dying in a single day. Blake, in his Annals of Dorchester, says: "In y^e latter part of this year (1751) & y^e beginning of y^e next was a very Dying time in Dorchester, with a Pleurisy & Nervous Fever, few living who were seized with it."*

Capt. Samuel was a constituent member of the second, or South, Church in Dedham.

The foregoing are all buried in that part of Dedham now in the bounds of Norwood. The head stones of Samuel and his two sons are standing, but that of the father is broken. The daughter Mary's stone has no dates, merely the words "Mary Dean" engraved upon it.

Lieut. John^c Holmes (Samuel,^a John,^b George^c). Born in Dorchester South Precinct, now Stoughton, June 17, 1702, and died there Dec. 26, 1789.

He married (first) in Dedham, Nov. 21, 1727, Keziah Thorpe, born in Dedham about 1705, and died in Stoughton in 1755, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (White) Thorpe.

Lieut. John and Keziah joined the church Jan. 31, 1742. When Keziah died she settled upon her husband and children her share of the land of Samuel Thorpe (her father).

Lieut. John married (second) in Stoughton, Oct. 19, 1758, Elizabeth (Clap) Wentworth, born in 1725, died in Sharon, Jan. 23, 1790, widow of Ebenezer Wentworth, who was born in Stoughton in 1722 and died there Sept. 12, 1749, son of John and Elizabeth (Bailey) Wentworth. She brought him two children,

* The same conditions existed in surrounding towns, the Dedham Church records calling the epidemic "a terrible fever." The same record also has the entry regarding one death, "Died by the way of the small pox."

† Called "Twains" in the Dedham Record.

Elizabeth Wentworth, born in 1746, and Lois Wentworth, born in 1748. The former married Joseph Stearns, the latter married Samuel Morse. The total number of the three sets of children was eighteen. Probably John said to Elizabeth, "Your children and my children are quarrelling with our children."

Soon after his second marriage, he began to grow poor and had no end of trouble, and in the latter part of his life, even at an advanced age, he worked out.

His first homestead was in Stoughton, on the "Taunton Road," but he sold this in 1738 for £500 to John Dean. With the proceeds he bought land in Connecticut. The following was taken from the Killingly (Conn.) Land Records, vol. iv. p. 89.

"John Holmes," called "husbandman of Stoughton in y^e County of Suffolk & province of y^e Massachusetts Bay in New England," bought fifty-five acres of land in Killingly, bounded by land of John Brown, John Grover, "by y^e River which is y^e North West Corner" and Israel Shaw "together with y^e buildings, fences, & Orcharding thereon" etc. This transaction bears date of "thirtieth day of March Anno Domino 1738." No record of mortgage was found, so probably he paid cash for his purchase. Jan. 5, 1739, he sold his Connecticut property to Susannah Alexander of Killingly for £529 (Book iv, p. 104, Killingly Land Records). History states that at that period there was a great deal of lawlessness and drunkenness among the people in that locality, which may have been a reason for his sale.

He then established himself in Stoughton, near the changeable lines of what is now Sharon and Canton.

He was ensign of the Train Band in 1748 and lieutenant in 1751 and later.

Inventory of John Holmes, dated Jan. 26, 1790, taken verbatim et literatim from Suffolk Co. Probate Records, vol. 89, p. 69.

Nathaniel⁴ Holmes (Samuel,³ John,² George.¹) Called "Nathaniel 2d" in some records. Born in Dedham in 1715; date of death not ascertained.

He married in Dedham, Dec. 16, 1740, Sarah Pettee, born in Weymouth, July 20, 1715, and removed to Dedham about 1720, daughter of Joseph and Mary Pettee. Not much information could be obtained of this Nathaniel.

Children, the first two born in Dedham, the last two born in Stoughton:

- I. NATHANIEL,⁶ b. Dec. 17, 1741. Most likely moved to Roxbury about 1754 and probably had children there. Roxbury records are very incomplete.

Nathaniel, Jr., of Roxbury, in a list made out by Joseph Williams for re-inforcements, reported gun fit for service, Oct. 7, 1755 (Archives, vol. 93, p. 247). There was a Nathaniel Holmes in the Revolution, credited to Stoughton.

- II. ZEPHANIAH, b. Dec. 8, 1743. Col. Wheeler's Orderly Book states that Zephaniah Holmes was tried on a charge of mutiny at Ticonderoga, Oct. 16, 1776, and found not guilty; three others were not guilty, but sixteen were adjudged guilty and received twenty lashes each and picked oakum for a week. There was but one Zephaniah Holmes in the Revolution from Massachusetts and no Zephaniah has been found from any other state who was in the Revolution and no Holmes bearing the name of Zephaniah has been found, with one exception, and his age was such as to disallow him serving as a soldier.

Benjamin Mulberry⁴ Holmes (George,³ Nathaniel,² Joseph,¹ George¹), Distiller; was born in Boston, Apr. 24, 1738; baptized in the "New Brick Church," Boston, Apr. 30, 1738, and died in Halifax, N. S., in August, 1795, letters of administration having been granted to his wife Zilpah,* Aug. 22, 1795.

He married, first, in Medford, Nov. 30, 1761, Mary Hall, born April 27, 1739, daughter of Stephen and Mary (—) Hall of Medford and sister to Willis Hall who married Sarah⁵ Holmes, a sister to this Benjamin. He married (second) in Halifax, N. S., about 1780, Zilpah, ———, who died about 1825.

Mr. Holmes was a Royalist, and like many others in the earlier years of the Revolution was obliged to leave the country. He was an addresser of Hutchinson in 1774 and of Gage in 1775. He went to Halifax in 1776, and was proscribed and banished in 1778.

* Spelled as above, wherever found in the Halifax records.

On Sept. 24, 1783, pursuant to an act passed in 1781, "intituled an Act to provide for the payments of Debts due from the Conspirators & Absentees" . . . a committee sold at "Public Sale" to Jeremiah Allen the property then remaining in Boston of Benjamin Mulberry Holmes for £113. This "land and Other Buildings" was "Situate in Anne St" (Suffolk Deeds, Vol. 136, p. 77).

When he became of age he was executor of his father's estate and managed to get a goodly share into his possession.

A copy of the following letter to his "Brother Hall" received from him, dated Halifax, N. S., May 25, 1776, is to be found in Suffolk Co. Probate Records, vol. 78, p. 447.

"I know not what to say to you about my business in your part of the world. The Still House you know belongs to my Fathers Estate. And as what I had received together with the bonds and mortgages I have in my Possession will amount to much more than my part of the Estate without having anything to do with the Still House, therefore that you will Divide among the other heirs." The Judge of Probate thereby ordered a division of the property. (Vol. 78, p. 643.)

In Halifax he owned either a distillery or a brewery, for deeds there show of several purchases to that end. (See Book 17, p. 276, Halifax, N. S., Deeds.)

Children, the first two born in Boston, the others born in Halifax, the baptisms being on record in St. Matthew's Church of the latter city.

 "I give to my two sisters in Law, supposing them to be living at Halifax, namely Ann Holmes and Hannah Holmes, $100 each." (Middlesex Probate, No. 8290.)

Samuel¹ Holmes (Nathaniel,⁴ Ebenezer,³ Nathaniel,² *George*¹). Called yeoman in administration of estate. Born in Dorchester, Sept. 4, 1726. Moved to Stoughton with his parents, where he died May 26, 1786.

He married, Feb. 4, 1754, Sarah Trask, dau. of John and

* Eliza in Halifax baptisms and marriages, but Elizabeth in a Boston deed.

Penelope (White) Trask of Bridgewater. She was born Dec. 25, 1733, and died July 22, 1804 (g. s. Stoughton).

Administration of his estate was granted to Samuel, his oldest son, July 17, 1786 (Suffolk Probate, Vol. 85, p. 465). Nine children are mentioned in the settlement of the estate. The real estate is noted as £285: the personal estate as £87. The division of the estate is dated Stoughton, Apr. 27, 1787, and covers six full closely written pages, not including the inventory. Enough of it is here quoted to show how differently such things were managed in generations of long ago, in contrast with the present way of doing:

"The widow is to have the kitchen & the N. E. bed room & the chamber over the same & the Westerly end of the Barn" ten feet to the posts & the yard room at the Westerly end of the barn" * *

* * "also the widow to have one third of corn barn and cellar." (This was all divided into feet and inches.) "The way down cellar & up chamber are to be used in common" * * * * *

"She is to have free liberty to pass & repass thro" different parts of the house to reach her possessions in cellar and chamber. "Those who may own the Southerly part of the said house are to have free liberty to go to the kitchen fire place to wash & to brew & some other necessary uses & to bake in the oven." * * * * "Widow has privilege to walk in the lane and to draw water from the well, provided she keep the well in repair." (It was not stated on which side of the well curb she should stand while drawing water.)

She could also have from all those acres, privileges of a garden "two rods square(!) where her roots now are." (Most likely she also had "the privilege" of giving the prepared compound of those roots and herbs to the whole household should they feel "mizerble.")

She also had "the privilege" of walking over part of the land she had helped earn, to get some "chestnut stuff" for fuel. She also had "the privilege" of keeping the walls and fences in repair.

What was sold was equally divided between the children, the eldest son Samuel receiving double share, as was customary in those days. In the account against the estate, the following were some of the items:

	£	s	d
"To John Holmes* for a coffin		8	0
To cash paid for gravestone for said deceased	1-	5	0
Pd Dr. Nathaniel Holmes†		12	0
paid to the widow Sarah Holmes for providing Diners for Appraisers one day & for the Dividers one Day & for the Administrator		8	0"

The following children received £17-12s. each: Ebenezer, Joseph, Elijah, Penelope, Abigail, Rachel, John.

* Perhaps his brother or son.

† The writer has no record of any Nathaniel Holmes as a physician.

Nathaniel¹ Holmes (Nathaniel,⁴ Ebenezer,³ Nathaniel,⁴ George¹). Born in Dorchester, Oct. 1, 1728, and died in Stoughton in 1783.

He married in Stoughton, Apr. 3, 1751, Hannah Smith, born in Dorchester, Dec. 1, 1729, daughter of Joseph* and Mary (Homes) Smith.

In 1767 he bought land in Killingly, Conn., and the transaction is recorded in Killingly Land Records, Book VII., p. 242, as follows:

"Zachariah Cutler Gentleman" for £35 sold "to Nathaniel Holms of Stoten in y^e County of Suffolk in provences of y^e machutess Bay in New England" * * * * 27 acres on * * * * "the Cuntrey Road" * * * * bordered by land of Thos. Bafferton, William Marsh, Aaron Wilder and Amos Carrell. * * * * Dated "10th Day of July of the 7th year of y^e Reign of our Sover Lord George the 3^d of Great Britan &c King A.D. 1767."

July 26, 1767, he sold this same land for £35 to Paul Parker of Easton; deed signed by Nathaniel and Hannah (Ibid, Book VIII., p. 96). The reason of his purchase and quick sale is not apparent, unless it was an accommodation to Paul Parker of Easton.

Oct. 6, 1778, he sold for £120, to Samuel Manley of Easton, thirteen and one-half acres. His wife Hannah signed this, and it was witnessed by James Packard and Jesse Manley. (Bristol Co. Deeds, Vol. 60, p. 62).

In 1780 he was collector of Stoughton.

Feb. 1, 1782, he, with his wife Hannah, deeded for "£250 Solid Money of said State" to Christopher Wadsworth fifty-one and one-half acres land with buildings and fences, partly improved. Abut-tors, Samuel Holmes, Nathaniel Holmes (his father) and James Smith. (Norfolk Deeds, Vol. 134, p. 35.) Probably this was the fifty-one acres deeded to him by his father in 1764.

In the "List of Scholars at Mr. Billings Sacred Music Singing School at Stoughton," in the year 1774, under "Singers of Treble," are the names of Hannah Holmes and Eunice Holmes. As far as discovered these were the only children:

1. HANNAH,⁶ b. June 22, 1752; d. May 13, 1843; m. in Stoughton, Jan. 11, 1769, JEREMIAH VOSE, b. Apr. 8, 1747, d. May 31, 1823, son of Robert and Miriam (Vose) Vose (cousins). - II. EUNICE, b. Sept. 3, 1755; m. in Royalston (Royalston Town Record), Feb. 15, 1776, JESSE MANLEY, son of John and Mercy (Smith) Manley of Easton. The town record says Jesse was of Royalston, Mass. It is assumed that Jesse lived there with his brother James before he moved to Vermont. We copy the following from the Vermont Historical Magazine, Vol. V., p. 105: "Jesse Manley and Eunice his wife were married in 1776, and lived in Dummerston, Vt., and had issue: Jesse, Jr., 1778; m. Betsey French: Amasa, 1780; m. Lydia French: Eunice, 1782; m. Reuben Newton: Nathaniel: Hannah: Betsey: William: Sally: Polly: John: Luke. Lieut. John^{*} Holmes (Nathaniel,⁴ Ebenezer,³ Nathaniel,¹ George¹). Called John, 3d; sometimes John, 2d. Born in Dorchester, Aug. 20, 1739; died in Stoughton, Feb. 22, 1816.

He was married (first), in Medway, Oct. 16, 1764, by the father of the bride, to Mary Bucknam, born in Medway, May 13, 1736, died in Stoughton, Dec. 2, 1766, daughter of Rev. Nathan and Margaret (Fiske) Bucknam, and sister to Dr. Nathan Bucknam, who married Sarah Holmes, sister to this John. (See SARAH v. under Deacon Nathaniel 17.)

He married (second), in Stoughtonham (now Sharon), Mar. 25, 1769 (int.), Hannah (Belcher) Badlam, born in Stoughton, Nov. 25, 1736, died there, Aug. 24,* 1816, daughter of Jeremiah and Mary (Hayward) Belcher and widow of Deacon Stephen Badlam.† Her home was in Stoughtonham at the time of her marriage to John Holmes.

He was lieutenant of the "Train Band" in Stoughton, but went as private in Capt. Talbot's company in the alarm of Apr. 19, 1775. Five days service; also a short time in another alarm; again in short service at Dorchester Heights in Mar., 1776; enlisted in Dec., 1776, as corporal, in a regiment raised to serve until Mar., 1777. After his time expired marched to Bristol under command of Capt. Robert Swan of Stoughton. Revolutionary marker over his grave.

Stoughton Church Records say, under date of "May 3, 1795, John Holmes was chosen Deacon,"—most likely to fill the place of Deacon Philip Holmes, his brother, who died the March previous.

The latter part of his life he acquired peculiarly shaped shoulders, which gave him the name of "Stooping John" and "Stooping Deacon." His grave, also that of his wife, is marked by a headstone that is in an excellent state of preservation. In his will of Feb. 20, 1816, he gave everything to Edward Belcher, if he would provide for the widow the rest of her life. The providing was not of long duration, for the widow survived her husband but a few months. There are no children mentioned in the will. There are no graves in the cemetery lot besides Deacon John and wife Hannah,

* G. S. says 20th.

† Deacon Stephen Badlam was son of Stephen and Elizabeth (Billings) Badlam. His father was from Weymouth, his mother from Dorchester. He was a cabinet maker by trade, but kept tavern on "Ragged Row," a place now owned by the town of Canton. It was in this tavern, in 1774, that the singing school was held. He was elected deacon, Feb. 15, 1749. Hannah died Mar. 16, 1756, one week after the birth of her son William. He married (second), Nov. 25, 1756, Hannah, daughter of Jeremiah and Mary Belcher of Stoughton. He died Mar. 20, 1758.

Rev. Jezaniah^s Holmes (Nathaniel,⁴ Jehoshaphat,³ Nathaniel,² *George*¹). Born in Pomfret, Conn., Jan. 20, 1763, and died in the house of his son John, in South Richland, N. Y., Apr. 17, 1840. His was the first funeral in the new church he was so anxious to have built and to which he contributed largely.

He married in Mansfield, Conn., in 1783, Olive Goodell, born there, Nov. 28, 1761, and died July 7, 1845, in the house of her daughter, Olive Richards, in South Richland, daughter of Aaron^s and Amy (Tyler) Goodell. (Her line is Olive,⁶ Aaron,⁵ Ebenezer,⁴ Thomas,³ Zachariah,² Robert¹ of Salem.) She was fair complexion, light hair, blue eyes, stout in form, had great energy and force of character, with much tact and winsomeness.

In 1781, when the British made their attack on New London, Jezaniah joined the ranks to repel the invaders.

Jezaniah was said to be a handsome man, with dark brown eyes, pleasing address, and a total abstainer. He became converted at a Congregationalist revival in Tolland, Conn. The change was great, as he was much given to hilarity and mirth. Soon after this revival (about 1793) he moved into New York State, and settled in Litchfield, now known as North Winfield. Mr. O. B. Holmes now lives on the place. Jezaniah was the first of his family to emigrate. After the Revolution, and New England people knew that all the vast territory west of them belonged to their nation, a steady stream of emigrants flowed into the newly-opened country. About 1796 he changed from a Congregationalist to a Baptist, and was elected deacon. In 1803 he was ordained as minister, at the earnest request and judgment of his brethren. His voice was clear and strong, a remarkable one for preaching. He preached in various places for twenty-five years with great acceptance.

In 1827 he went to South Richland to live with his children.

John⁴ Holmes (Lieut. John,⁴ Samuel,³ John,² George¹) was born in Stoughton on High Plain, near Walpole line, Apr. 28, 1729, and died in Sharon, Feb. 12, 1802.

He married first, in Sharon (intention recorded Aug. 11, 1750) Mehitable Hewins, daughter of Ebenezer and Judith Hewins of Sharon.

He married second, April 11, 1777, Desire Everett, his cousin, daughter of William and Mary* (Thorpe) Everett of Dedham, who was born Aug. 12, 1742, and died July 3, 1822. (Same family from which came Hon. Edward Everett and Rev. Edward Everett Hale.) After his first marriage, he settled in that part of Stoughton that was set off as Stoughtonham (now Sharon), but was once within the boundaries of Dedham.

Although John, like many others of the Holmes family, was a Stoughton man, yet the many changes in the town boundaries of this vicinity make it appear that this and other families were quite migratory in those days. Many families who never changed residences have births recorded in three different towns. This is rather perplexing to the genealogist and no doubt is one cause of mistakes.

Just before John's first marriage he sold eight acres of land on the Taunton road to Nathaniel Leonard for £42.

Aug. 1, 1757, he was in a train band in the Colonial war. Aug. 18, 1757, he was a drummer. Also thirty-five weeks, beginning Mar. 22, 1762. (Archives, Vol. 95, p. 442.)

Samuel¹ Holmes (Lieut. John,⁴ Samuel,³ John,² George¹), husbandman, was baptized in Dedham, June 10, 1733, and died Feb. 5, 1803, in Sharon.

He married in Stoughton, Dec. 2, 1761, SUSANNA COMINGS, daughter of Samuel and Susanna Comings, and settled in that part of Stoughton that is now in the bounds of Sharon. He married second, Sept. 7, 1780, ABIGAIL (PIERCE) TILDEN, b. Stoughton, Mar. 27, 1737; died May 26, 1804, daughter of John and Rebecca (Fenno) Pierce of Stoughton, and widow of Stephen, son of Daniel and Abigail Tilden. She had five children by Mr. Tilden. Stephen Tilden was of Canton, married Oct. 25, 1753, and died in August, 1766. "In 1794, twenty eight years after his death, the estate was divided and his wife Abigail, who had married Samuel Holmes, received her dower." (Pierce Gen. 1880, p. 49.)

A record dated Milton, May 19, 1758, shows that Samuel Holmes was twenty-one days in Col. Timothy Ruggles' regiment in the Colonial War. He was a drummer five months, beginning in June, 1758. He was charged £3 for arms not returned. (Mass. State Archives.)

In 1760 he sold ten acres of land and dwelling on the Taunton road to Clifford Belcher, about the same time that his father sold land to the same Belcher. It seemed quite the proper thing in those days for young men to own land before marriage.

In 1771 he sold to the town of Stoughton land for a schoolhouse. There is no signature of wife to this deed, which would indicate he was a widower at that time. He answered the alarm of Apr. 19, 1775, afterwards enlisting for nine months and went to Fishkill, arriving there June 14, 1778. "Dark hair, curled; eyes grey; husbandman." Second enlistment in 1779, two months, thirteen days. In 1780 enlisted twice, once for three months, once for six months. Service in and around Boston.

Children, all born in Sharon:

- 109. I. SAMUEL,⁶ b. May 20, 1763; d. Dec. 28, 1825.
- 110. II. ELIJAH, b. Sept. 29, 1764; d. Feb. 10, 1839.

Perhaps others.

Zebulon¹ Holmes (Lieut. John,⁴ Samuel,³ John² George¹) was born in Stoughton, Apr. 28, 1736, date of death not ascertained.

He married in Stoughton, Nov. 17, 1757, Abigail Savell, born in Stoughton, June 25, 1738, daughter of Benjamin and Mary Savell.

When a boy, he lived with his grandfather Thorp. The latter said in his will, dated July 7, 1747:

"I give unto my Grandson Zebulon Holmes who now lives with me, the sum of Fifty Pounds old Tenor in case he shall live with me & Serve me until he be Seventeen Years of age and if he shall see cause to live with me until he arrives at the age of Twenty & one years I give him One hundred Pounds old Tenor."

Probably he stayed, as he did not marry until six months after becoming of age.

He was in the French and Indian War; enlisting in Apr., 1756, in Samuel Willis's regiment, and remained at Crown Point and vicinity until Dec. 2, 1756. In 1759, he was a corporal twenty-eight weeks.

He marched on the alarm of Apr. 19, 1775, serving three weeks, when he enlisted May 8, 1775, being corporal in Capt. Payson's company; three months service. Marched to Braintree, May 22, 1776. Was at Ticonderoga, Aug. 27, 1776. On regular muster roll credited to Stoughton in Feb., 1777. In Bristol, Apr., 1777. In 1778 enlisted to reinforce the Continental army. Was at Castle Island early in the year. Reported at Fishkill, June 14 and Aug. 1. Age, 42; stature, 5 ft., 7 in.; complexion, dark; eyes, blue. Served nine months in 1778. Discharged Dec. 5, 1780.

Mar. 1, 1776, a petition was sent to the General Court, dated Stoughtonham, Mar. 1, 1776, signed by Zebulon Holmes and others, stating that while in service at Squantum they were taken sick, and no facilities for medical attendance being available there, they had gone to their respective homes and employed doctors and nurses at their own expense, and after recovery had returned to their duty, and requesting that expenses for medical attendance be allowed them. The petitioners were given leave to withdraw.

Oliver* Holmes (Ebenezer, Samuel,* John,* George'*). Born in Dedham, May 4, baptized June 22, 1740, and died in Francestown, N. H., Sept. 26, 1806.

He married in Dedham, July 25, 1763, Bethia Morse, born in Dedham, Mar. 12, 1744, and died in Francestown, May 11, 1808, daughter of Ezra and Bethia (Lewis) Morse.

He was seven months and sixteen days in the Colonial War from April 5, 1758; also eight months beginning March 1, 1762. (Mass. Archives, vol. 96, p. 437).

He settled first in Dedham and moved to Francestown, N. H., in 1771, where he had obtained a grant of land.*

Dec. 2, 1772, a petition for a ministerial tax that would "encourage the settlement of the wilderness" was signed by "Olipher" Holmes and others.

When the "alarm" sounded, Oliver hastened to the front and enlisted in Dedham, May 3, 1775. A certificate endorsed Dec. 25, 1775, by Capt. Joseph Guild, certifying "that said Holmes and other soldiers in his company had not received their bounty coats or their equivalent due for the 8 mos service in 1775." Later he was a lieutenant and marched from Lyndeboro, N. H., Sept. 30, 1777, joined the North Continental Army at Saratoga and returned Oct. 26. He went again and came home major.

"He held many offices of trust and was second to none of the early settlers in ability and influence. He was renowned as a military man, and wore crape on his arm a full month, as a badge of mourning for Gen. Washington." (History of Francestown.)

He and his wife were constituent members of the first church in Francestown. The second town meeting was held Aug. 31, 1772, in James Fisher's barn, where was talked over the "seat for a meeting House" which should be "as Long and as Good as Lyn Borough meeting House Every way proportioned." Oliver was prominent in every way in building this church. The inside was not finished until 1787, when it was ordered "to Finish the Gallerys after the Form of the meeting House in Deedham." The "Pew-ground" was sold to the highest bidders. Enoch Holmes (56) bid off the first choice for "10 pounds and 10 shillings." Thomas Bixby (Oliver's son-in-law) second. "Major Holmes" the twelfth and Jabez Holmes (57) the nineteenth in the list of twenty-eight names.

* Francestown was incorporated June 8, 1772, from a tract of land called "New Boston Addition" and was named Francestown by Governor Wentworth, in honor of his wife.

After returning from the war, he opened a tavern and Maj^r Olev^r Holmes" was the first man in town to get the "aprobation to sell Speretus Lequers in s^d town." His hotel was where a few years ago Capt. Wisner Parker lived. There was a store in one corner occupied by Peter Woodbury, grandfather to the late Hon. Levi Woodbury of Boston.

He was on the board of selectmen for a number of years, being chairman in 1774-7-8. The town meetings were held at this tavern.

In 1778 he was a committee to confer in a convention at Concord "to State the price of Sundry Articles for Francestown."

In 1788 he was on the committee "to take Into Consideration the Federal Constitution."

In 1795-7-1804 he was Justice of Peace.

Over fifty transactions in land are recorded in Hillsboro Co. Registry of Deeds in Oliver's name.

Dec. 24, 1783, he was appointed by the Judge of Probate to sell land of John Quigley, an absentee whose property was "Confiscated by an act of this State."

Oct. 23, 1798, "in consideration of love and affection" he gave one half of his homestead farm to his son Oliver.

He was in Capt. Wm. Bullard's Co., raised in the South Parish of Dedham, and marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775; four days; was five days at Dorchester Heights and again at Roxbury, Mar. 4, 1776.

He had already made plans to go to Francetown previous to the Revolution, and on April 17, 1775 bought of John Quimby of Francetown one hundred acres at what has lately been known as the Thomas Ordway Place, southwest of Clark Village. He was one of the selectmen in 1781, and again from 1785 to 1793, and chairman in 1786-9. Eliphalet was quite a trader in land, and many transactions are on record in Bristol County Registry of Deeds. One sale was a bad one for him. About the time of his marriage he sold his farm for $3,000 Continental money and of course lost it, as the money was worthless.

The day his father was buried (1766) Eliphalet planted an elm tree and it is living to-day (1906).

He was in the Revolution, first as a drummer in the New York campaign in 1776, two months; afterwards a corporal and later a sergeant. Marched to the alarm of the battle of Bunker Hill and was in Rhode Island, in 1778. Amy, his wife, drew a pension.

Eliphalet made his will Aug. 13, 1825. His wife Amy to have one half of the real estate as long as she remained his widow, she to have one cow. After her death the children were to have as follows: Sons Nathan, Milton and Harrison $75 each, Sons Eliphalet and James $70 each. Daughter Amy Sweetland, wife of John W., daughter Meletiah, wife of John Haven, and daughter Fannie Holmes, to have $35 each. Daughter Joanna $75 with privilege of cooking, lodging, etc., as long as she remains unmarried. The son Augustus the executor, to have the residue. Joseph Holmes, Jr., was one of the incorporators of the old Norfolk and Bristol Turnpike Company, from Dedham to Providence, built in 1802. He was a farmer and was quite a trader in land.

March 20, 1804, he bought of Barnard Smith, for $4,000, the house and land that became his homestead the rest of his life. George⁶ Holmes (Benjamin Mulberry,⁵ George,⁴ Nathaniel,³ Joseph,² George¹). Born in Boston, Oct. 6, 1762, baptized in the New Brick Church,* Nov. 3, 1762; date of death not ascertained, neither has any record been found of any marriage. The following under date of April 5, 1803, is taken from the Suffolk Registry of Deeds, vol. 205, p. 30:

"George Holmes, now of Boston, Mariner, late of Halifax, province of Nova Scotia, for five dollars from John Ward Gurley,† Attorney of Boston * * * * sell all my rights, titles, etc in land, tenements and hereditaments whatsoever, situate in Massachusetts which formerly belonged to my father Benjamin Mulberry Holmes, late of Halifax Merchant, deceased."

Benjamin⁶ Holmes (Benjamin Mulberry,⁵ George,⁴ Nathaniel,³ Joseph,² George¹). Born in Halifax, N. S., about 1780, and was baptized there in St. Matthew's Church, Sept. 12, 1792. He probably died in Halifax or Dartmouth, but no record has been found of his death.

His wife was Mary Ann, according to a signature to a deed of land in Dartmouth, April 14, 1819. According to the following record, he was at one time a resident of Gibraltar:

"Halifax N. S. May 30, 1803

"Zilpah Holmes, widow of the late Benjamin Mulberry Holmes, formerly of Boston, but late of Halifax, Province of Nova Scotia, Merchant, deac'd and Ann Holmes, Elizabeth Holmes, Sarah Holmes and Harriet Holmes, single women and children of said Benjamin Mulberry Holmes all of Halifax aforesaid do constitute and appoint Benjamin Holmes of Gibraltar, within the dominion of the King of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland now resident in Halifax, Merchant, our attorney for us, * * * * to recover * * * * possession of all or any part of the real estate to which the said Zilpah may be entitled as widow of the said Benjamin Mulberry Holmes * * * * wherever the same may be" (Suffolk Deeds, vol. 206, p. 3.)

* The New Brick Church stood on what is now Washington Street, not far from Brattle Street.

† John Ward Gurley was a prominent attorney of Boston, and was killed in a duel at New Orleans, May 5, 1808, while he was Attorney General of Louisiana.

A parcel of land on Cambridge Street, Boston, was found which had not been confiscated. This was sold for $950 to Joseph Coolidge of Boston. (Ibid, vol. 206, p. 4.) No record of any children found.

Samuel^{*} Holmes (Samuel,^{} Dea. Nathaniel,^{} Ebenezer,^{} Nathaniel,^{} Geerge¹). Yeoman. Born in Stoughton, Nov. 28, 1755; and died there, April 12, 1826. (g.s. says 73d year of his age, but it is undoubtedly an error.) Joel Talbot was administrator of his estate, which was small. Real estate $280. Personal estate $427.

He married first, Nov. 28, 1779 (his birthday), Rachel Fisher, born in East Stoughton, Aug. 1, 1750, and died there, Aug. 20, 1817, daughter of Ezra and Mary (Fenton) Fisher.*

He married second, July 25, 1820, his cousin, Bethia (Holmes) Morse, born in Stoughton, Oct. 11, 1766, and died there, April 25, 1856, daughter of Deacon Philip (32) and Mary (Waters) Holmes, and widow of Joseph Morse, 3d, born Feb. 23, 1771, son of Joseph, Jr., and Rachel (Philips) Morse. (Joseph Morse, Jr., was of Dorchester, and Rachel Philips was of Easton.)

Samuel Holmes lived on the Ezra Fisher farm, one and one-half miles south of the town. He went to church regularly with his family in an ox cart. He was a very religious man, and observed Fast Day to such a degree that he would allow none of his family to partake of food on that day. He carried out the same severity in the barn, tying up the heads of the cattle, lest they should get hold of a spear of hay and thereby violate God's command.

After the division of the property he built a house and barn on the opposite side of the road from the old homestead. Here he showed his oddity, which was considered by the neighbors in many of his actions to come pretty near the dividing line between oddity and insanity. He built the barn very close to the highway, but built the house about three hundred feet away from the road on much lower ground. The only approach to the house was through the barn yard.

Samuel was in the Revolutionary army, and marched on Alarm of April 19, 1775; service, seven days. Was two days in another alarm. Marched from Stoughton, March 4, 1776, and helped fortify Dorchester Heights. Was in service at Squantum when the British

* Ezra Fisher was son of Eleazer and Mary (Avery) Fisher, and a descendant of two very old families of Dedham. It is related of him that, during a thunder shower, he was sitting in his doorway, with a dog between his legs. The lightning struck the dog, killing it instantly, but did no harm to Mr. Fisher.

Mary Fenton was daughter of Robert Fenton of Braintree. Just before her marriage she rode a horse in a race (and won) on Seekonk Plain. She died Mar. 27, 1807, aged 92 (g.s.).

ships left Boston Harbor. Was on the list of men raised by Stoughton to reënforce the Continental army. Enlisted May 20, 1778. Served nine months at Fishkill. Was on muster roll April 5, 1779, at West Point, where he was discharged. He is buried in Pearl Street Cemetery, Stoughton, his grave being marked by quite an ornamental, well-preserved slate headstone, perfectly upright, with name and dates high on the stone, in direct contrast to its neighbors, whose inscriptions in some cases are several inches under ground. The grass will have to grow very high to cover these letters. There is a Revolutionary marker on his grave.

Children, all born in Stoughton :

- I. REBECCA,⁷ b. Sept. 3, 1780; d. Feb. 28, 1836; m. Jan. 17, 1808, HEZEKIAH GAY, son of Hezekiah and Lydia (Hodges) Gay of Stoughton. He was b. May 20, 1777; d. Feb. 28, 1836.

Rebecca was one of five to start the first Sabbath school in Stoughton in 1812. The first regular services of the Methodists were held at her house in 1810.

Like many others of the Holmes family, she was insane on religion, although not to such an extreme as some of her relatives. She had faith to walk on the water, and firmly believed she could do it, until her neighbors, becoming weary of her numerous, although sincere, vauntings, pushed her to a trial of her faith. Taking off her shoes and stockings, she confidently attempted to imitate Christ, but her faith was more buoyant than the water. Ever after that she was silent on that subject. In the family Bible is a record showing she had read the book through sixteen times.

Stoughton records have her name as "Vesture." Tradition says she was usually called "Vesty." They lived in Stoughton, and had children, as follows: 1. Rachel, b. Aug. 20, 1804; d. in Easton, Nov. 26, 1867; m. Linus Manley, son of Daniel and Phœbe (Howard) Manley, she being his second wife. He was b. July 4, 1798, and d. July 8, 1882; no children. As Rachel advanced in years, she began to develop signs of insanity. She, as well as Rebecca, was a great reader of the Bible, and the record is in the family Bible, side by side with that of Rebecca, stating that Rachel had read the book through twenty-two times.

She was taken to the Worcester Insane Asylum, Sept. 11, 1841, her brother Ezra having preceded her by a few years, where she stayed until Apr. 14, 1854, when she was transferred to the Taunton Insane Hospital, that institution just having been opened for patients. She was not violent, but, as the record of the hospital says, was "quite demented, and had hallucinations of hearing." The cause of her insanity was heredity, says a report on her case.

John^a Holmes (Samuel,^b Nathaniel,^c Ebenezer,^d Nathaniel,^e George^f). Farmer. Generally called John Second. Born in Stoughton, Aug. 4, 1757, and died there, July 15, 1837 (g.s.). Joel Talbot was appointed administrator, Sept. 5, 1837.

Ebenezer⁸ Holmes (Samuel,⁸ Nathaniel,⁸ Ebenezer,⁸ Nathaniel,⁸ George¹). Born Feb. 27, 1761, in Stoughton, probably in the district of Stoughtonham (Sharon since 1783) and died Feb. 3, 1848, in Montpelier, Vt.

He married in Canton, Oct. 25, 1787, Hannah Paul, born July 27, 1765, and died in Montpelier, Mar. 15, 1837, daughter of Samuel and Hannah (Fisher) Paul of Stoughton. (See Ann vi. under Nathaniel 17.) Hannah's mother married Philip Holmes (68) a cousin to this Ebenezer.

Ebenezer contributed some to patriotism at the time of the Revolution by service in Capt. Nathaniel Clap's Co., Col. Benjamin Hawe's regiment; enlisted July 26, 1778; discharged Sept. 11, 1778; service one month, sixteen days in Rhode Island (Mass. Archives). In 1834 he received a pension.

After marriage he lived in Stoughton and Sharon, although perhaps in the same house, for the town boundaries changed frequently about that period.

Apr. 1, 1794, he was appointed guardian of his youngest brother "Elijah (67) of Sharon" who is mentioned as "a minor over fourteen years of age and late of Stoughton."

June 13, 1800, he sold for $591, thirty acres of land in Sharon to Richard Hixon. On the same date he sold for $1034 thirty-three acres in Sharon to Jonathan Belcher. With the proceeds of these sales, he went to Worcester and bought, Sept. 18, 1800, a farm of one hundred and thirty acres with buildings for $1679, and mortgaged it for $800 to Asa Hamilton, called "gentleman" in the mortgage, while Ebenezer is called "yeoman of Sharop." (Wor. Co. Deeds, Vol. 141, p. 505.) This mortgage was discharged Apr. 12, 1802. This place was known as "Hamilton's Tavern," and the Daughters of the Revolution in Worcester are authority for the statement that the house was standing in 1739. It is situated on what was then called the "Great Road" to Leicester, but now named Apricot St. Six Revolutionary soldiers have held residences in this house at various times. The old horse sheds and other tavern paraphernalia have disappeared from time to time and the large ell which has been the last remaining portion was demolished in 1905 to make room for a modern house.

Oct. 11, 1811, he sold for $3300 to Abel Harwood of Brookfield. Mar. 2, 1814, Harwood sold to Solomon Parsons whose descendants now live there. It was discontinued as a tavern about 1820.

March 2, 1807, he was elected one of a "committee to Provide the Town with Publick Schools."

He removed from Worcester to Percy* (now Stark), N. H. In a quitclaim deed dated Apr. 7, 1812, where the heirs of Sarah, widow of Samuel, relinquished their rights to John, 2d, he is called "Ebenezer of Peircy, Cohorset county N. H." (Norfolk Deeds, Vol. 44, p. 113.) Again, in a deed from several joint owners to Joseph Holmes dated Apr. 11, 1812, he is called of Peircy, "Cohoss" Co. N. H. (Ibid, vol. 57, p. 277.) In the years 1813 and 1814 he was one of the selectmen of Percy. In 1813 the town raised $70 for schools and $120 for roads and bridges.

He stayed in Percy until 1816, then moved to Montpelier, Vt., where he bought eighty-two acres of land without buildings. This he mortgaged to Nathaniel Cutler for $800. The mortgage is dated Feb. 5, 1816, and Ebenezer is called "of Percy, N. H." There are various land transactions between Ebenezer and his sons on record in Montpelier.

Ebenezer, as well as all his children, made many long distance removals. He and his descendants moved about more than any other branch of this Holmes family. The following is one illustration of how the family was scattered. In the Registry of Deeds for Norfolk Co. (Vol. 175, p. 182) is the record where the heirs of Ebenezer have signed a deed of land in Stoughton, to Samuel Capen, May 12, 1847, as follows :

* Town incorporated as Piercy, Jan. 9, 1795. Dec. 28, 1832, changed to Stark in honor of Gen. John Stark, then recently deceased. One of the railroad stations in Stark is called Percy (1904).

Fisher and Lois Holmes of Barrie, Vt., Otis Holmes clergyman and Sarah Holmes of Sandwich, N. H., Barzillai, yeoman and Louise† of Montpelier, Vt."

Philip⁶ Holmes, Jr., (Philip,⁵ Nathaniel,⁴ Ebenezer,³ Nathaniel,² George¹). Called Lieutenant Philip. Born in Stoughton, June 3, 1754, and died there Sept. 25, 1846. He married, July 2, 1776, Hannah Paul, born in Stoughton, July 16, 1742, and died there June 13, 1799; daughter of Ezra and Mary (Fenton) Fisher and widow of Samuel Paul, born in Dorchester, May 14, 1733, died in Stoughton, June 3, 1775; married Sept. 5, 1769; son of Samuel and Abigail (Withington) Paul.

The will of Samuel Paul, cabinet maker, was dated Mar. 24, 1775. He gave all to his wife if she remained a widow. If she should marry again, she to have only one third. The remainder: "I will and bequeath to my children that are now born (with that my wife is like to have, if it should please God to spare her life and make her the living mother of a living child)"; but the children's names are not given in the will, but are in the division of the property May 30, 1777. "Hannah, the widow, now the wife of Philip Holmes, Jr., to have one third. The children two thirds." Those mentioned were Joseph (deceased), Samuel, Hannah (m. Ebenezer Holmes, 65), Rachel and Ann Holmes Paul.

Philip saw a little service in the Revolution, but probably never smelled the enemy's powder. He served five days in Mar., 1776, to help fortify Dorchester Heights. As he was to be married in a few months, probably he thought he would be brave and stay at home with his future wife.

Mather' Holmes (Philip,' Nathaniel,' Ebenezer,' Nathaniel,' George'). Named for Rev. Cotton Mather. Born in Stoughton, Oct. 31, 1756; died there, July 29, 1834. (Taken from gravestone, where name is cut as "Marther,"

He married March 23, 1779, Silence Fisher, daughter of Ezra and Mary (Fenton) Fisher, they being neighbors. She was born Sept. 23, 1758; died March 2, 1851. (g.s. says 1850, but is in error.) When she was ninety-one years old, she milked a cow that was twenty-one years old.

Mather saw service in the Revolution, enlisting for three months in Capt. Penniman's company in Dec., 1776. Also served eighteen days in March, 1778, in Capt. Endicott's company at Roxbury. Was in the list of pensioners, Aug. 6, 1833, as seventy-seven years of age, drawing $36.67 per year, commencing March 4, 1831. After his death, his widow, Silence, continued drawing the pension.

He bought land of William Curtis in 1784, and erected a house in that part of Stoughton now in the bounds of Avon, situated quite near his wife's father's farm. In 1806, he rebuilt with an excellent house, which is standing now (1906), owned and occupied by his grandson Ira (275).

He was tax collector of Stoughton in 1788, '9, '90, '91.

In settling Mather's estate, the following allowance was made to the widow: "That owing to the state of the family under her care and circumstances of the deceased, she be allowed $125 and her own apparel." (It was very kind of the administrator to recommend this allowance to the widow to have her own "apparel" to wear!)

July 20, 1792, he bought marsh land in Quincy of Samuel Wales for £30, "it being the whole of a plate of Marshthatch bank & muddy Creek & hereto belonging descended to s^d Sam. Wales from his Dis father Moses X^{his} Wales." (Norf. Deeds, vol. 2, p. 118.) ^{mark}

Aug. 1, 1797, he buys of Samuel Osgood for $150 "and for divers good causes and considerations me hereunto moveing" twenty acres, being a part of Milton School Farm Lot, so-called. (Ibid, vol. x, p. 83.) In another deed his name is spelled "Marther."

He was tyler in Rising Star Lodge of Masons in Stoughton. Was made a mason, Nov. 12, 1818; made a member of Mt. Zion Royal Arch Chapter of Stoughton, July 27, 1821.

He married, third, in Holmesville (a part of Richland), N. Y., Nov. 23, 1866, "the widow of a soldier," Mrs. Martha Melvina Thompson, born in Holmesville (?), Feb. 12, 1829, and died in Centreville, N. Y., Dec. 28, 1893, widow of William D. Thompson, who died in the army, Jan. 26, 1863, and daughter of Elijah and Eunice (Kingsley) Dana. She had several children by Mr. Thompson. By Isaiah Holmes' last marriage one child was born (JOHN DANA), when Isaiah was nearly eighty-one years old. Mrs. Holmes married again, Nov. 26, 1876, Erastus D. Wyman of Orwell, N. Y.

He was a cripple and on crutches when a boy, but earned considerable money by braiding whip lashes, tanning the hides of woodchucks for his leather. He lived in Plainfield, Conn., then. He lived in Albany a while and went to New York on the second steamboat ever built, the Paragon by name. The fare was twelve dollars each way. He also went from Albany to New York in horse cars on rails of wood; the horses were driven tandem and were kept on the gallop.

While quite a young man he went to Monticello, N. Y., and became a partner, afterward full owner in a store. In 1812 he sold out, went to Winfield, bought land and settled there. In 1832 he went to South Richland and built a saw mill and residence on the cross road from the "Old Salt Road," then went back for his family. On the way to the new home JOHN BRADLEY was born. In a few years he built a good house now owned and occupied by Mr. Andrus Rockfeller.

Isaiah was deputy sheriff for many years. He built, owned and operated three different saw mills in his life.

Jezeniah' Holmes (Nathaniel,⁵ Nathaniel,⁴ Jehoshaphat,³ Nathaniel,² George¹). Born, probably in Groton, Conn., Aug. 12, 1790, and died in South Richland, N. Y., Apr. 29, 1872.

He married in Litchfield, now Winfield, N. Y., Sept. 9, 1810, Martha Sweet, born Aug. 17, 1793, died in South Richland, June 4, 1869, daughter of ——— and Martha Sweet.

Jezeniah and his wife resided with Mr. and Mrs. Sweet for several years. In April, 1825, he bought land in South Richland, built a log house and moved his family there. On the way a runaway occurred which wrecked the wagon and made havoc of the household goods. His first purchase of land was 636 acres, afterwards bought more, adjoining the land of John Holmes the pioneer, and erected a good frame house.

In addition to his farming he kept a shop where shoes were made and repaired, also harnesses. He was a successful keeper of bees, having at times hundreds of hives, which added greatly to his income, and old age found him in comfortable circumstances. He was quiet, unobtrusive, sincere and conscientious.

What living descendants of this family there are, take very little interest in their relatives, but what has been obtained is here given.

Eliakim⁶ Holmes (Nathaniel,⁶ Nathaniel,⁴ Jehoshaphat,³ Nathaniel,² George¹). Born in South Richland, N. Y., May 11, 1794, and died in the west, place not ascertained.

He was not married, unless after he left South Richland.

In 1831 he built a house where he and his parents lived. In 1850, when his father died, he sold out and moved into Illinois, where all trace of him is lost.

78

John⁶ Holmes (Jezaniah,⁶ Nathaniel,⁴ Jehoshaphat,³ Nathaniel,² George¹). Born July 5, 1784, presumably in Pomfret, Conn., although there is no record there to prove it; died in South Richland, N. Y., March 2, 1854, of paralysis and was buried from the church the following Sunday.

He married in Winfield, N. Y., Dec. 8, 1805, Grace King, a school teacher, born June 5, 1782, died Dec. 15, 1859, daughter of Silas and Anna King of Alstead, N. H.

John was the pioneer of South Richland. In the spring of 1806 he took up land and worked all summer on it, to make improvements. It was a forest and there was a house just one and one half miles each way from his log house, which he built alone. In the fall of 1806, he walked home to Winfield, a distance of eighty miles. He returned with his wife and child in March, 1807, on a sled drawn by oxen. About fifteen miles of the road was only cut out through the heavy timber, part of it through an unbroken forest and unbroken snow, with nothing to guide them but blazed trees. The nearest grist mill was in Oswego, twenty miles away.

About 1820 he built a saw and grist mill, supplanting it with a more modern structure in 1835.

He was clerk of the Baptist Church in Richland from 1828 to 1834, the elder Jezaniah supplying the pulpit.

He was a strong man of sterling character, a model to future generations, a specimen of the kind of men who went up out of the red bed of New England and built the American nation.

John Billings,* Jr., of Stoughton, son of John† and Sarah (Spear) Billings. Unity is buried in the Billings lot in Canton beside her first husband, by whom he had three children, Asa, Vashti and Sally.

Enoch was a farmer and a blacksmith and always lived in Sharon. In 1787 and 1788 he lived on the "old place" (his grandfather's) below the Ingraham School House. After that and until his death he lived on the Billings Farm, which is near what has been called the "Billings Bridge." It is the last house in Sharon towards Canton line. Lieut. William Holmes, brother to Enoch, occupied this farm in 1787 and '88, when Enoch was at the old Holmes place. In 1792 the farm was taxed to "Widow Holmes." It is not known where Enoch is buried, but probably in the Billings lot, although there is no visible evidence of it.

He settled on a farm, bought in 1791 of Jacob Boyden, in the southern part of Sharon, near Foxboro line, on the borders of Wolomolpoag Pond (Indian name for pleasant water). The estate is now (1904) owned by Dr. Garvin of South Boston. The old house was torn down in 1880. This place had historic interest, being the site of the "Gridley Furnace," where were cast the first cannon for the Revolution, by Uriah Atherton, under the direction and supervision of Gen. Gridley. Cannons were also cast there at intervals nearly the whole period of the war. This building was destroyed by fire about 1874. It being in an out of the way place was never discovered by the British. Elijah^{*} Holmes (Samuel,^{*} John,^{*} Samuel,^{*} John,^{*} *George*¹). Born in Stoughtonham, now Sharon, Sept. 26, 1764, and died in Rockland, Me., Feb. 10, 1839.

He married (first), in Sterlington, now Union, Me., Aug. 25, 1785, Dorcas Partridge, born in Franklin, March 31, 1767, and died there April 4, 1814, daughter of Elisha^{*} and Dorcas (Pond) Partridge of Sterlington. He married (second) at Moose River† about 1815, a woman (name not ascertained) who probably died without issue about 1828.

In 1785 he left Sharon and went to Taylor Town,‡ Me., and took up his residence on the place subsequently owned by Obadiah

* Elisha Patridge with his wife and five of his six children went to Taylor Town (then called), Me., from Franklin, Mass., in April, 1782, and moved on to the Col. Wheaton farm. He died Jan. 1, 1787, of apoplexy, while riding horseback, dropping from the horse, which went home riderless, leaving his master dead in the road.

† Eaton, in his History of Rockland, says that Moose River is in the British Provinces, near Lubec. There are several "Moose Rivers" in the Provinces, but even by personal visits and diligent inquiries the writer fails to find any trace of Elijah Holmes in the Provinces; but he did find a locality within the town of Trescott, Me., "near Lubec," that was then, and is now, called "Moose River." This locality was settled by people from the westward in 1812 and this is most likely where Elijah went. There are no land transactions in Washington Co. Registry of Deeds in Elijah's name.

‡ Union in 1774 was called Taylor Town. May 3, 1786, it was organized as the "Plantation of Sterlington." Oct. 28, 1786, it was named Union. A few families from Walpole, Franklin and Stoughton went there and settled, having bought land for fifty cents an acre.

Morse and later by Major(?) James A. Ulmer. He cut the logs for his house, "backed" them together and put up the walls before any one knew it and then announced to the family of Capt. Adams, with whom he boarded, that he had a house.

Elijah became an extensive land owner in Union and vicinity and was one of the pioneer lime burners of Rockland. Apr. 19, 1795, he bought land in East Thomaston, now Rockland, and subsequently built a log house on what would now be the corner of Main and Holmes Streets, the latter named in honor of Elijah. Lincoln Co. Registry of Deeds contains many records of land transactions and many of them are for hundreds of acres. After he left Union, he began to close out his holdings there and invested in Rockland lands. In 1812 he went to Moose River (see foot note), his wife probably going to some of her relatives in Franklin, Mass. He stayed at Moose River until 1829, when he returned to Rockland and lived with his son Charles, in whose house he died.

Joseph^{*} Holmes (Issachar,^{} John,⁴ Samuel,³ John,^{} George¹). Born at Dorchester Lower Mills, May 19, 1795; died in Hampden, Maine, Jan. 1, 1845; married in North Yarmouth, Me., about 1819, Sarah Kenney, born in North Yarmouth, Sept. 20, 1795, and died of a liver complaint in Dedham, Oct. 6, 1864, daughter of Samuel B. and Alice (Blanchard) Kenney.†

*The above was given by a relative. The Southworth Genealogy, p. 98, states that the parents were Capt. Jedediah and Eunice (Mills) Southworth (a widow).

†Mr. Kenney was b. in Nottingham, N. H., and Mrs. Kenney was b. in North Yarmouth. They joined the Church in North Yarmouth, Jan. 2, 1831, and removed to Newcastle, Me., in 1840.

Joseph was a millwright and when quite a young man went to that part of North Yarmouth which is now Yarmouth, where he married and went to Union, Maine, to live a few years. His two eldest children were born there. He returned to North Yarmouth and either erected or helped erect a paper mill on a site a little farther down the stream than where now stands the Forest Paper Co.'s mill on Royal River.

He joined the church in North Yarmouth, June 7, 1835, his wife having joined Nov. 10, 1817. They were both dismissed Aug. 3, 1842, to join the church in Hampden, where they affiliated Nov. 3, 1842.

It was here he met his death in a paper mill, Dec. 31, 1844, by being caught in a pulley, just as the clock was striking twelve at midnight. It was decided that he did not die until after the clock finished striking, so his death is recorded as Jan. 1, 1845.*

In the church records at Yarmouth is the following entry under baptisms: "Aug. 4, 1833; Elizabeth, Josiah Kenney, Mary, Joseph, Susan Blanchard, Sarah, ch. of Joseph and Sarah Holmes."

After the death of Joseph, the whole family, except Mary, removed to Dedham, where the children, except Elizabeth and Josiah K., were placed under guardianship of Benjamin White † of Milton.

† Benj. White married Joseph's sister Mary, and the record calls him "Gardene."

He was made a mason in Rising Star Lodge, Stoughton, Nov. 25, 1819, and at his death was one of the oldest masons in the country. He was an anchor-smith by trade, but later in life bought a farm in North Hanson, where he lived always after.

He was offered town office many times but never accepted, which may be a reason that he never had an enemy.

He was a Universalist and his wife an Orthodox, and while they attended worship regularly and both went to different churches their disagreement was harmonious.

Holmes Street, in North Hanson, about a mile long, leading towards Pembroke, is named for Luther Holmes.

His farm was in Sharon and was a milk producing one, and he was one of the last of farmers to give up the use of oxen in farm work. He shaved the day he was married and never shaved afterwards. George' Holmes (Ebenezer,' Ebenezer,' Samuel,' John,' George'). Born in Stoughtonham, now Sharon, Oct. 9, 1761, and died in Stoddard, N. H., Sept. 1, 1843.

He married in Walpole (some say Sharon; no town record of marriage found in either place), Oct. 25, 1781, Rachel Allen, born (Stoddard Records say in Lyndeboro, N. H., but probably is in error for it is quite likely she was a Massachusetts woman), Oct. 14, 1762, died in Stoddard, N. H., Nov. 9, 1846, daughter of George and Experience (Stearns) Allen.

When George was a lad the strife for freedom began and although only a stripling, he managed to get into the army, somehow, as a helper in the same regiment as that of his father, and afterwards as a full fledged soldier. Revolutionary Records in the Archives of Massachusetts state that a receipt, dated Medway, June 16, 1778, was signed by said Holmes and others belonging to Capt. Moses Adams' Co., Col. Brooks' Regt. of Guards, for service from Nov. 3, 1777, to April 3, 1778, 5 mos. at Cambridge and travel allowance for said term. He was in a secret expedition to Newport, R. I., 1 mo. 6 dys. Was also in Capt. Samuel Holden's Co., Col. Ebenezer Thayer's (Suffolk Co.) regiment; enlisted July 28, 1780; discharged Oct. 1780; regiment raised to reinforce the Continental Army for three months.

He started for Stoddard, N. H., from Sharon, Feb. 9, 1792, with an ox-cart, his wife, five small children, and (as he wrote in his journal) "nine shillings in money." The latter part of his journey was through the primeval, only certain marks on trees indicating to him which direction to go. On the way thither, one of his children, Lucy, while putting her arm out of the cart to grasp a limb of a tree, broke her wrist. He settled first in the southern part of the town and built a log house from trees felled by himself. In 1801 he bought more land nearer the centre and built a good sized frame house which was his home ever after and where he, his wife and Jesse Wilder died. The home place was transferred to Jesse Wilder, Feb. 15, 1834, and is recorded in Cheshire Co. Registry of Deeds, Vol. 119, the agreement being as follows:

. . . . "that they (meaning George and Rachel) shall live in the same part of the house as they do now, with use of the oven, firewood cut & split suitably at the door, sufficient for one fire to provide a horse suitable for such old people to drive to ride at their pleasure. Also between the 1st of October and 1st of March shall provide 1 bush wheat flour, 6 bush ind. corn, 4 bush Rye, 1 fat hog that shall weigh three hundred pounds. 125 lbs butter, 150 lbs good four meal cheese.* 150 lbs beef fit for salting, 2 bbls of cider, 15 bush potatoes, 8 bush apples, 3 pks white beans, 1 bush Turks Island Salt, 8 lbs young hyson tea, 6 lbs coffee, 30 lbs brown sugar, 6 gal molasses, 1 lb alsprice, 16 lbs candles, 1 lb pepper, 25 lbs fresh meat in the spring and summer with all the milk and cream they need, all green sauce needed for their table, ten quarts soap. Bed, bedding and clothes to make them decent and comfortable. Shall provide needful doctoring, medicine and nursing in sickness and infirmities by day and by night, and at their deaths give each of them a decent and christian burial. In case of death of either, the remaining one is to have one half of the foregoing. . . . shall provide Fanny M. Holmes, Daughter of the said George & Rachel with the privilege of a home & room to set a bed in said house & to board with her parents and after the decease of her parents shall provide her with common board as long as she remains a single woman and pay her fifty dollars when she marrys."

George Holmes attended church constantly, but never was a member. He was the first of his family to die, although the youngest was forty years old.

Ebenezer^c Holmes (Ebenezer,^a Ebenezer,^a Samuel,^a John,^a *George*¹). Born in Stoughtonham, now Sharon, Feb. 25, 1768, and died at Fort Plain, N. Y., in October, 1839.

He married in Franchestown, N. H., Nov. 24, 1794, Hannah Ewell, born in Franchestown about 1771, and died in Fort Plain in March, 1842,† daughter of Peleg† and Hannah (Johnson) Ewell.

In the spring of 1794 Ebenezer followed his uncles to Frances-town and settled. He worked at shoemaking in his early days; numerous deeds mention him as "cordwainer."

In the latter part of the century Mr. and Mrs. Ewell moved to Deering, a few miles from Frances-town, and deeds show that Ebenezer also lived there for a while. One deed reads:

* Edward W. Messinger married in Westmoreland, N. H., in 1893, Jessie M. Hutchinson, and had two children, Helen M., b. Winchester, Nov. 17, 1894, and Marshall E. Messenger, b. Melrose, Feb. 5, 1904.

† Family record says 1848.

‡ Peleg Ewell was in the Revolutionary war as a sailor and was twice taken by the British. He afterwards made forty voyages to the West Indies. Hannah Ewell was a descendant of Governor Bradford of Plymouth Colony.

"to Ebenezer Holmes, Yorman . . . my right and tital intres estate forever and Demand of incurd unto a Cartain trac of land forever lying in Dearing."

Other deeds call him "of Deering," but the last deed found, either to or from Ebenezer, is dated 1805, and it is probably about that time that he went into New York State. Francestown History says "he went to Utica," but perhaps he did not go there directly, but there is family knowledge that he lived at one time in the outskirts of Utica. The Utica city clerk says there are no births of children of Ebenezer recorded there. Just before moving to Fort Plain he was on the farm of J. Fenimore Cooper (the novelist) at Coopers-town. In 1825 he moved to Fort Plain, N. Y., where he had charge of the toll bridge over the Mohawk River. This bridge at one time was carried away almost bodily in a freshet. The toll house with its occupants were isolated and cut off from the main land. Mr. Holmes and his family were rescued by a man named Heath and carried to the house of Warren Holmes.

Children, the first four born in Francestown, N. H. It is not certain where the last four were born, but probably in the vicinity of Utica:

There are quite a number of transactions in land in the Bristol Co. Davis' Holmes (Joseph, 'Joseph, ' Samuel, ' John, ' George'). Born in what is now North Attleboro, Oct. 27, 1785, and died in San Francisco of old age in July, 1868.

He married in Concord, Mass., Nov. 23, 1819, Betsey Bemis, born Feb. 27, 1798 (probably in Weston); date of death not ascertained.

He was in the War of 1812.

Davis Holmes was a hotel proprietor most of his life. In 1805 a large brick building was erected in South Boston, on corner of Dorchester Turnpike and Fourth Street, later known as "the Twelfth Ward Hotel." It was in 1825, as near as can be ascertained, that he became proprietor of this hotel, and on Aug. 24, 1832, he bought the property of Samuel D. Parker (Suffolk Reg. of Deeds, Vol. 362, p. 207). One William D. Holmes was witness to this deed. This house became a popular resort for politicians, and in later years the proprietor was called "Pa Holmes." (See History of South Boston, p. 125.) It is quite likely that Mr. Holmes never kept hotel in California. He had a number of children there, and it is probable he went west to be taken care of in his declining years.

He was the father of sixteen children, but many of them must have died young, for the living relatives know very little about them except to know that that number existed. It is possible he may have had a wife and children before he married Betsey Bemis. It was not a common thing, even in "the good old times," to have sixteen children by one wife. It is well nigh impossible, with what means there are at hand, to arrange a list of these children in proper order, but the best the writer can do is here given. It is quite probable that most of them were born in South Boston, with the exception, perhaps, of the first few.

Leonard^o Holmes (Joseph,^o Joseph,^o Samuel,^o John,^o George¹). Born in North Attleboro, Nov. 10, 1797, and died there, of paralysis, Sept. 12, 1867.

He married in Attleboro, April 22, 1822, Sally Tyler, born in Attleboro, Feb. 4, 1798, and died there on the anniversary of her wedding day, April 22, 1881, daughter of Zelotes (a Revolutionary soldier) and Molly (Robinson) Tyler.

For a while Leonard kept a hotel in North Attleboro, called the Union House. This hotel was burned in 1860. Afterwards he was proprietor of the Wamsutta, now the Emerson House. In his day the stage coach was the mode of conveyance, and his house was on the direct stage road between Boston and Providence. After he sold his hotel he was a manufacturer of jewelry. The writer saw a poster that once hung in his shop stating that one of the rules of the shop was that employees must work eleven hours, from 6 to 6, with an hour's nooning. He was a prominent Odd Fellow.

Ezra' Holmes (Samuel,^{*} Samuel,^{*} Nathaniel,⁴ Ebenezer,³ Nathaniel,² *George*¹). Born in Stoughton, June 10, 1784, and died in the Worcester Insane Asylum, June 23, 1853, of dropsy in the chest.

He married in Concord, April 4, 1811, Alice Jones, born in Concord (in the "Nine Acre Corner" district) September 21, 1786, died in Dudley, September 26, 1829; daughter of Reddit* and Hannah (Wheeler†) Jones.

He was a carpenter and bridge builder, having quite a reputation in the latter vocation.

He moved to Dudley soon after marriage and made many purchases of land from time to time, but he never gave a mortgage on any thing he owned.

March 28, 1819, he joined the church in Dudley, his wife joining June 6, of the same year. From the time of his joining the church he began to show signs of insanity. On his land was a large boulder called "Pulpit Rock" to this day, where he was wont to hold forth in prayer and expostulation before an imaginary audience, gesticulating wildly. At the latter part of his Dudley career his visits to this rock became almost daily in occurrence.

He was a prominent character in Dudley, of large frame, powerful build, and would not allow himself to be dominated by any man, save one. Reuben Davis was his superior. Whether sane or insane, Holmes was afraid of Davis and was like a child in his hands. Davis was also a powerful man, and in his first tussle with Holmes, during one of the latter's insane freaks, threw Holmes to the ground and pounded him unmercifully. Ever after that, Davis held full sway over him and Holmes would do anything ordered by

* Reddit Jones was in the Revolution. He was named for his mother, whose maiden name was Mary Reddit. He was born in the house now standing on Main St., owned by Mr. A. P. Chamberlain. When Reddit Jones was born, the house stood on the banks of Concord River on land now owned by Mr. Woodward Hudson. His pedigree is REDDIT* (Ebenezer,⁴ Nathaniel,³ Samuel,² *John*¹).

Davis. Many times, when Holmes caused a disturbance, Davis was sent for, who quieted him immediately by his voice alone.

He had a violent and ungovernable temper and would break his scythe blade with his heel, after he had accidentally bent or dulled it. It is related of him, that when he had a flight of stairs nearly completed, he smashed the entire flight because something had gone wrong.

Some of the later generations attribute the insanity of Ezra to a sunstroke, some to a blow on the head from a broad-axe accidently slipping from the hands of a fellow-workman. There is no doubt but what either one or both of these mishaps hastened the development of the terrible germ that had been implanted in him for years. (See Abigail, his aunt, seventh child of Samuel (30) Samuel (53) his father and his sisters Rachel and Rebecca.)

It was on Saturday, Sept. 26, 1829, that the culminating event of his life happened in a dreadful and pitiable tragedy that stirred up Worcester County at the time and is freely talked of in Dudley to this day. His devoted wife Alice was sitting by the fireplace, with her hands over her face, lamenting the state of her husband's health, when he suddenly grasped an and-iron, struck her upon the head and felled her dead with one blow. The children ran screaming to the nearest neighbor, which fortunataly happened to be Reuben Davis. He said, "Why Holmes, what have you done?" Holmes replied in a slow and measured tone, "Be not alarmed, I have the power to take life, I also have the power to restore it." He was taken to Worcester where the Grand Jury reported on his case the following Tuesday, that "for ten years he had been mentally deranged and in their opinion was not a subject for punishment on account of his insanity," and did not find a bill against him. The Court considering it dangerous that he should be at large, ordered him to the County Jail. There was then no retreat for the insane, but one was in process of erection near by and was completed in 1833, when he was transferred. The hospital report gives the cause of his insanity as "religious excitement." The report further states, "Sits in his room most of the time," "Reads his Bible," "Goes to meeting and to prayers."

He was buried in Worcester in what was then known as "Pine Meadow Burial Ground." The march of progress under the name of the Boston and Worcester R.R. Corporation needed the land, so the bodies were removed to Hope Cemetery where his remains now lie.

* Capt. Elijah Keeler Bangs was a direct descendant of Puritan Edward Bangs who came to Plymouth in the ANNE in 1623. He was an eminent sea-captain, commanding a vessel before he was twenty-one. He was captured by the French in 1808 and by the British in 1811, for having traded with the French. He was wrecked on the coast of Holland in 1820 ; each of these three times he lost all his possessions, which was a small fortune each time. He had four brothers, all clergymen.

† The Union loss in this fight was 12,321 men.

Samuel' Holmes (Samuel, Samuel,* Nathaniel,* Ebenezer,* Nathaniel,* George'*). Born in Stoughton, Jan. 29, 1792, and died in Milton, Aug. 28, 1855, of cholera.

He married in Milton, May 13, 1823, Almira Wild, born in Milton, October 3, 1805, and died there November 27, 1884, daughter of Samuel* and Betsey (Hunt) Wild.

He was in the War of 1812.

August 14, 1817, he was arrested while being mistaken for another person and was forced into a cell bruised and bleeding in Charlestown State Prison, and confined there six hours before being freed. He immediately brought suit of $1,000 against Gamaliel Bradford, of Charlestown, the then sheriff. The case was decided in favor of Holmes, but Bradford appealed (Circuit Court of Common Pleas, vol. xv., p. 416). A second trial in the following February term of Norfolk Superior Court resulted in Holmes' favor and he received $500 and $50 costs. (Norfolk Superior Court, vol. v., p. 455).

He was a farmer and settled in the southerly part of Milton, where he built a house on the border of what is now called "Houghton's Pond" on the "Scotch Woods Road,"† and where he always lived after he was married. The house is still standing but is altered into a club house.

He was a kind hearted man and had the same strong religious attributes possessed by his near relatives, but not to that extreme degree maintained by them.

In the latter part of his life he tried for a pension, but the papers did not arrive until after his death; they were immediately transferred to his widow. He was entitled to a grant of land in New York State and went out to view it with the idea of settling there, but not liking the situation returned east and settled in Milton.

He married (first) in Stoughton, April 14, 1833, Phebe Wales Beales, born in Stoughton in 1811, and died there November 15, 1842, daughter of Jedidiah and Phebe Beales. He married (second) in Stoughton, May, 15, 1843, Oliver S. Hayward, born in Stoughton, June 24, 1826, and died in Easton, July 2, 1866, daughter of Daniel and Vesta Hayward.

Feb. 18, 1840, Jeremy, his wife Phebe, together with his brother Elisha and Elisha's wife Martha, relinquished and quit claimed to Sarah Holmes (sister to Jeremy and Elisha) a piece of land once belonging to John Holmes, the father.

* Her line is MARTHA' W. (Elias, Moses,* Theophilus,* Ezekiel,* Theophilus,* Ezekiel'*). Elias was an innkeeper in Cambridge. His father, Moses, was killed in the Lexington fight, and at his hasty burial in one trench with other patriots, his face became uncovered. Elias his son and father of Martha went into the trench and covered his father's face with the cape of the overcoat in which the body was wrapped. Moses (Martha's grandfather) was surveyor, housewright and mathematician, college carpenter and was called by the students, "Old Mathematicus." He used to have his leather apron and breeches covered with calculations in chalk, as the most convenient place to note them down, much to the annoyance of his wife, who was very prim and precise. He was "Artificer in Chief" of Mass. troops serving under Gen. Wolfe in the invasion of Canada in 1758-9.

Apr. 8, 1847, Jedediah Beales sold out his boot manufacturing shop on Pleasant St., one half to his son Jedediah Beales, Jr., the other half to his son-in-law Jeremy Holmes.

Joel Talbot was administrator of Jeremy's estate, which was $2835 in real and $2254 in personal. Jabez Talbot was guardian of Alexander J. and Julia F. Jeremy's widow left all her property, by will dated June 9, 1866, to her daughter Julia when she would arrive at twenty-one years of age. If she did not live until then, the property was to go equally to the widow's two sisters, Betsey Pierce and Abigail P. Young.

Otis Holmes began his working life as a baker and lived in Dorchester after marriage until 1837, when he went to the Gilmanton, N. H., Theological Seminary, studied for the ministry and graduated in 1842. For about a year previous to his studies in Gilmanton, he officiated as a lay missionary in Boston.

Sept. 8, 1842, he settled in Sandwich, N. H., where he ministered faithfully until 1849 and was then dismissed. He possessed great energy, deep religious feelings and marked convictions which he inculcated without fear or favor. He was strong anti-slavery in sentiment and a radical in temperance.

Mr. Holmes began ministerial labors again in Sandwich on January 27, 1865, where there had been no settled minister for sixteen years.

In the interim he had held pastorates in Northwood, N. H., in 1850 to 1857, and in Eliot, Me., from 1858 to 1865. He stayed at Sandwich until 1868. (The writer is unable to find out accurately where he was from 1868 to 1875, but perhaps in Concord, N. H.)

Lewis Holmes lived in Milton for a few years after marriage, then moved to Dorchester, where he owned a small place.

He and his wife were divorced in October, 1824. He never appeared at the trial, so she was granted the divorce with the care of the children and to have alimony of ten dollars a quarter (Norfolk Sup. Court, vol. 7, p. 230). Quite likely he did not pay the alimony promptly, for on May 18, 1831, she (called tailoress) recovered judgment against Lewis for $89.25 and costs, $47.29. Lewis's land of twenty-five acres in Stoughton was attached for payment. This was land he inherited and was bounded by lands of Charles Page, Philip Holmes, and Samuel Swan.

Robert' Holmes (Elijah, Samuel,* John,* Samuel,* John,* George'*). Born in East Thomaston, now Rockland, Me., May 24, 1808, and died in Wrentham of a liver trouble, Aug. 26, 1886.

He married in Wrentham, Jan. 6, 1841, Nancy Clark, born in Rehoboth (?) and died in Wrentham, Nov. 6, 1894. Her parentage not ascertained, but she was left an orphan very young and was brought up (but not adopted) by Mrs. Dorothy Thayer Everett of Wrentham.

Robert went to Franklin when a small boy, and we assume for some reason connected with his mother, who died there in 1814.

He was brought up in a family named Whiting, and the head of the family was always alluded to by Robert as "Father Whiting."

After marriage he settled in Holliston on a small farm of his own, but in a few years, moved to Sheldonville, a section of Wrentham where his wife had received as a gift from Mrs. Everett a small house and a few acres of land. After Mr. Holmes's death his wife preferred to live entirely alone. A short time before she died, she deeded her property to the town of Wrentham, the consideration being that the town should support her in her own home to the end of her life.

She was found one morning, dead on the floor beside an overturned table with broken crockery strewn about the floor. It was thought that she accidentally upset the table and died from the shock.

No children.

He stayed here until 1830, then went to Kittery, Me., subsequently to Portsmouth, N. H.

The first record we find of his buying land in Portsmouth is under date of Sept. 25, 1838; after that, several transactions appear. July 2, 1856, he bought, in company with two of his sons, William and Henry E., for $3500, of Gideon Beck, a farm of sixty acres on the banks of the Piscataquis River with a mill privilege.‡ After Spencer Holmes' death the farm was taken by his son Henry who lived there a number of years. It is a picturesque spot and is mentioned in Brewster's "Rambles about Portsmouth," p. 206. The farm is now owned by Mrs. Edward Yates, a widow who is a daughter of the above mentioned Beck and who was born in this house that is now (1905) one hundred years old. The farm has been in continuous use since the first settlement of Portsmouth in 1623. The cellar holes near by are distinguishable where other houses have stood.

He was deacon of the Free Will Baptist Church in Portsmouth. He had large black eyes, and his hair and beard also very black became snow white in his declining years. He was a man of his word, possessed a very kind disposition and well liked by every one.

In 1804, Leonard Holmes ran away to sea with the idea of reaching Mt. Desert to join his brother Spencer (213) who had preceded him by a few months. He worked for his brother a while, then went to South West Harbor and built a tide mill in company with Nathan Clark, Holmes running it one week and Clark the next week.

He was in the War of 1812, serving his country as coast guard, and was in the battle of Norwood's Cove in August, 1814. He became a prosperous lumberman and gained a competency for old age. He was of a different complexion from his brother Spencer. Leonard had light hair and blue eyes, but the same kind disposition that was characteristic of Spencer. For honesty, veracity and an upright life, Leonard had no superiors. He endeared himself to his children and the family circle was a happy one. He and his wife joined the Congregational Church about the time of their marriage and were conspicuous members ever after.

Cyrus^o Holmes (Ezra,⁷ Samuel,^o Samuel,^o Nathaniel,⁴ Ebenezer,³ Nathaniel,² George¹). Born in Dudley, Apr. 17, 1818, and died in Ludlow, Illinois, May 7, 1886.

He married in Princeton, Ill., May 2, 1841, Calista Bennett, born in Chardon, Ohio, Feb. 12, 1820, died in Ludlow, Jan. 28, 1890, daughter of Clark and Mary Elizabeth (Smith) Bennett. She was just the person to be the wife of a pioneer, for she could do all the work that a man could do and bear children besides. In one instance she followed the plough all day, turning the furrows with the foot like a man, and at ten o'clock of that same night gave birth to a bouncing healthy boy.

When the family was broken up (see Ezra 137) Cyrus was taken to Stoughton, where he lived with his uncle Hezekiah Gay. At twenty-one, he, in company with a Mr. Davenport (probably of Milton) went to Illinois, traversing the whole distance by a horse team. He had one hundred dollars in his pocket on arrival.

His first venture was a mail contract from the Illinois River into Chicago. From his earnings he put all possible into land, a plan which he kept up nearly all through life, buying and selling thousands of acres, which made a rich man of him. The last few years of his life he was under guardianship, for he was giving away his money faster than it accumulated.

Like his father, grandfather, aunts and other relatives, he gradually took on the religious mania, imagined himself to be a second Christ and that his mission was to preach. He did preach in many cities in the eastern states; in Boston and Baltimore he was stoned in the streets. He was not disconcerted at this, saying that the first Christ suffered the same sort of persecution and he must do the same. While under guardianship he was allowed a good round sum from his estate, which went mostly for traveling expenses and religious gifts.

THE HOLMESES OF WOODSTOCK, CONN.

THERE seems to be an opinion among many of the Holmeses that Jehoshaphat Holmes of Pomfret was in some way connected with John Holmes of Woodstock and its settlement. As Pomfret and Woodstock are adjoining towns, and Holmeses were numerous in both towns at about the same time, the opinion is not to be regarded lightly, but by the perusal of the pages in this work, the reader will see that there is no connection whatever in the two families. They were segregated (genealogically) from beginning to end, as there were no intermarriages as sometimes there have been in similar situations.

In 1877 Mr. E. Holmes Bugbee of Killingly, Conn., devoted considerable time and energy to the study of the Woodstock Holmeses, he being a descendant of John Holmes. His work was never published, but there are a few manuscript copies in existence, one being in possession of the N. E. Historic-Genealogical Society of Boston, which copy was kindly loaned to the writer to be copied for this work, as there would be then a better chance for preservation.

The historical part is not inserted here, for the reason that it is published in various forms elsewhere.

The writer has prefixed a few lines of his own research on David Holmes and his children.

The abstract of Mr. Bugbee's work begins on page 349 and is given verbatim et literatim.

David¹ Holmes (ancestry unknown). Born in England, date not ascertained, but probably about 1635, and died in Milton, Mass., Nov. 2, 1666.

He married about 1658, Jane ———, who died in Dedham, some time after 1691. She married (second), in 1667/8, John Mackentosh of Dedham, by whom she had one daughter, Rachel, b. Feb. 11, 1668.*

* Previous to 1752, the calendar year ended March 24th, so Rachel was born fourteen months after the death of the first wife and not two months after, as would appear in the present way of computing time. March 25th was New Year's Day in England and her colonies in the seventeenth century and until 1752.

As some other nations at that time called January the first month, the English people often wrote a double date during the months of January, February and March, for instance "2 dy (12 mo) 1642-3," which meant February 2d, 1642. March 24 was in the old year, yet the anticipation of "day 25" caused March to be called "Moneth 1"

John Mackintosh's first wife was Rebecca Metcalf (?), who died Dec. 8, 1667. By his first marriage there was a son William Mackintosh "born 23^d 12^m 65," who was executor of his father's will. (See Suffolk Probate Records, Vol. VIII, p. 54.) John Mackintosh was in Dedham as early as "10-6-1659" and died there Aug. 22, 1691.

David Holmes lived in that part of Dorchester that has been in Milton since 1662. His land joined that of Henry Crane, as per deed in Suffolk Reg. of Deeds, Vol. VII, p. 150, and per statement of his wife Jane. (Suffolk Probate Records, Vol. VII, p. 124.) His will is given here and is on record in Suffolk Probate Records, Vol. I, p. 564, but has no date or place given to indicate just where or when the will was made. The spaces indicate where the original will was worn and defaced, the words being indecipherable.

David' Holmes, Jr. (David'). Born in Dorchester about 1660.

He never married.

He was killed "at the eastward," Sept. 1, 1689. (The so called King William's War having broken out in 1689, between England and France, their colonies in America took up the quarrel. The Indians of Canada and Maine aided the French and the Iriquois assisted the English). Probably David was in Maine. His brother John was administrator of the estate. We copy the following from Suffolk Probate Records Vol. IX, p. 364.

The inventory was mainly of clothing and firearms, nearly every word spelled wrong or "over-capitalized."

James' Holmes (David'). Born in Dorchester * or Milton in 1662, and died in Woodstock, Conn., Sept. 7, 1743.

granddaughter of Abraham Newell, who came over in the Francis from Ipswich in 1634.

John Holmes was an important man in Woodstock. In 1691, he was the man selected to build the first church there.

"A man was allowed two shillings a day for working, or two and three pence he finding himself diet; five shillings if with a team of four cattle" (Bayle's History of Windham Co., Conn., p. 847.)

He was selectman in 1704. He had a fulling mill "and was also chosen and desired to make coffins as they may be occasion" (Ibid, p. 853).

Margaret' Holmes (David'). Born in Milton in 1666 and died in that part of Stoughton that is now Canton, July 7, 1744.

She married (first) in Boston, by the Rev. Cotton Mather, Nov. 12, 1702, John Barr,* born in Scotland, emigrated to New England, via the West Indies, about 1700 and died in Boston in 1708.

She married (second) by the Rev. Cotton Mather, in Boston, April 25, 1717, William Hippy.

Mr. Dunbar was a pupil in the Latin School of Boston at seven years of age; graduate of Harvard College in 1723; studied for the ministry under Cotton Mather; ordained in Stoughton, now Canton, in 1727; used a stenographic method of his own invention. During the fifty-six years that he administered to the people of Stoughton, he officiated at 682 funerals, 596 marriages, 1703 baptisms, and 482 admissions to the church. - II. MEHITABLE DUNBAR, b. June 10, 1708.

*The record says Barr, but his true name was Dunbar. The early Scotch accented the last syllable strongly, so the first syllable was scarcely audible. All following records of this man were given as Dunbar.

HOLMES GENEALOGY.

PREPARED BY E. HOLMES BUGBEE.

A record of some of the descendants of John Holmes who was one of the original Proprietors of Woodstock, Connecticut, and one of the first settlers of that ancient town; and of James Holmes, a brother of John, I think, who was in Woodstock prior to 1690.

All of the original Proprietors of Woodstock, with the exception of Peter Aspinwall, John Butcher, James Corbin, and John Holmes, were from Roxbury. These four, according to the Proprietors' records, were from the neighboring towns. I am of the opinion that John and James Holmes were from Dorchester, and were the sons of David Holmes who died in Dorchester, as appears from the records, in 1666. His will was probated November 15, 1666, and in it he mentions his wife Jane, his son David, his daughter Margaret, and two young sons whose names are not given. Now I am of the opinion that these two unnamed sons were John and James, the Woodstock emigrants. John Holmes had a son David and a daughter Margaret; and it would have been in accordance with the custom, as prevalent then as now, for him to have named one of his sons David, after his father and brother, and one of his daughters Margaret, after his sister. John Holmes was a young man when he came to Woodstock, and if he was the son of David, of Dorchester, one of those whose name was not mentioned in the will, he would have been but a little more than twenty when he emigrated. Savage, in his "Dictionary of Early Settlers," makes mention of several of the name of John in his account of the Holmes family, but I do not find any of the name of James in his list, and the presumption is I think, that John and James, twins undoubtedly, were the sons of David of Dorchester.

RECORD.

1. JOHN HOLMES, the Woodstock emigrant, was born about the year 1664, and probably in Dorchester, Massachusetts. He was married April 9, 1690, to Hannah, daughter of Isaac Newell, of Roxbury, and granddaughter of Abraham Newell, who came over in the Francis, from Ipswich, in 1634. She was baptized Feb. 19, 1671. I find mention on the Woodstock record of seven children born to John and Hannah (Newell) Holmes, viz:—

- i. HANNAH, b. Mar. 26, 1690; m. Robert Mason, Jan. 21, 1711. There is evidently a mistake in the date of the birth of Hannah, as it is an earlier date than the marriage of her parents.

2. ii. DAVID, b. _____, 1692; m. Bathsheba _____.
3. iii. JOHN, b. June 28, 1695; m. Mary Johnson, Jan. 28, 1718-19.
4. iv. EBENEZER, b. Feb. 13, 1697; m. Joanna Ainsworth, July 1, 1719.
5. v. MARGARET, b. Mar. 16, 1698; m. Timothy Manning, Mar. 20, 1738.
6. vi. ELIZABETH, b. Dec. 18, 1702.
7. vii. EXPERIENCE, b. June 8, 1706; m. Ebenezer Robbins, Oct. 30, 1729.

John Holmes was a prominent man in the new colony of Woodstock, and was elected to many important positions in the town. Frequent grants of land were made to him for services rendered to the settlement. He died June 20, 1713; his wife died May 9, 1743.

2. DAVID (John) was born in Woodstock in 1692. He married Bathsheba _____. I do not find any record of the marriage, but the following births are set to the names of David and Bathsheba Holmes on the Woodstock records, viz.—

5. i. DAVID, b. Aug. 11, 1721; m. Mehitabel Mayhew.
- ii. TABITHA, b. Apl. 20, 1723; d. Nov. 17, 1731.
- iii. JOSIAH, b. Mar. 23, 1724-5.
- iv. MOSES, b. June 16, 1727.
5. v. STEPHEN, b. Jan. 16, 1729-30; d. soon.
- vi. STEPHEN, b. June 4, 1732.
7. vii. TABITHA, b. _____; date not on record.

The above David was Deacon David. He was a prominent man in the First Church of Woodstock, and died May 22, 1745. His widow married Joseph Edmunds, Aug. 15, 1746. I have not been able to find her maiden surname. She lived to an advanced age, and was known by her descendants of the second and third generations as Grandmother Edmunds; and was often quoted by them as a remarkable woman, and of recognized authority in all matters of housewifery. She had a wide reputation as a doctress and midwife, and it is recorded of her that on one occasion in the time of the great snow in 1717, she travelled on snow-shoes, getting out of the upper window of her house in Woodstock, to Dudley, Mass., to attend a sick woman. The journey was made in this wise: two men accompanied her, carrying a long pole, each having hold of one of its ends and she holding it midway, and in this manner they travelled over hill and dale and wood and mountains of snow, several miles, to Dudley, and returned in the same way.

3. JOHN (John) was born in Woodstock, June 28, 1695, and married Mary Johnson, January 28, 1718-19, by whom he had eleven children, viz.:

- i. MARY, b. May 11, 1720.
- ii. SIBYL, b. Oct. 27, 1721; m. John Bishop, July 8, 1741-2.

- iii. JOHN, b. Sept. 6, 1723.
- iv. MEHITABLE, b. Oct. 3, 1725.
- v. SAMUEL, b. Oct. 11, 1727; d. Nov. 1, 1727.
- vi. SAMUEL, b. Nov. 3, 1728; died.
- vii. HANNAH, b. Mar. 5, 1732.
- viii. ESTHER, b. Oct. 1, 1733; m. Joseph Scarborough, June 29, 1749.
- ix. JOSEPH, b. Sept. 9, 1735.
- x. SAMUEL, b. Jan. 16, 1737-8.
- xi. PHILIP, b. Apr. 21, 1740.

4. EBENEZER (John) was born in Woodstock, Feb. 13, 1697; was married July 1, 1719, to Joanna Ainsworth, by whom he had:

- 6. EBENEZER, b. Feb. 27, 1720; m. Phebe Abbott, Aug. 25, 1742.

I find no other children set to the names of Ebenezer and Joanna Holmes, and I think he died between the years 1720 and 1724. I find a Joanna Holmes was married to Matturin Allard, July 13, 1734, and this Joanna was undoubtedly the widow of Ebenezer.

5. DAVID (David, John) was born in Woodstock, August 11, 1721; he was married to Mehitable, daughter of Ephraim and Elizabeth Mayhew,—I have not the date of the marriage—by whom he had seven children, viz.:

- i. ASA, b. Aug. 12, 1745.
- ii. ABIEL, b. Jan. 29, 1748; twin to William; died early.
- iii. WILLIAM, b. Jan. 29, 1748; died Feb. 4, 1749.
- iv. DAVID, b. Jan. 20, 1749; died Feb. 4, 1749.
- v. TABITHA, b. Jan. 28, 1750.
- vi. SANFORD, b. Jan. ; died .
- vii. BATHSHUA, b. May 6, 1753; m. Hezekiah Bugbee, Jan. 21, 1773. She died April 25, 1833, aged 80 years.

His wife, Mehitable Mayhew, died, and he married, for his second wife, Nov. 12, 1761, Mrs. Temperance Bishop, by whom he had eight children, viz.:

- i. DAVID, b. Aug. 17, 1762; m. Hannah Lyon, Jan. 1, 1789. He died June 30, 1832.
- ii. ABIEL, b. Dec. 24, 1763; m. Mary Stiles; 2d, Sarah Wendell.
- iii. SANFORD, b. Dec. 11, 1765; m. Rhoda Clark, May 21, 1806.
- iv. LATHROP, b. May 7, 1768; m. Sarah Sumner, of Midway, Georgia, Jan. 30, 1794. In 1801, while on their way from Georgia, the vessel was shipwrecked and they both perished. They left one child, Emma Temperance, then in Woodstock, who married Spaulding Barstow, of Canterbury. Mr Holmes was a physician.
- v. LEONARD, b. Apr. 17, 1770; m. Sally Lyon, Nov. 27, 1794.
- vi. HARTWELL, b. Mar. 17, 1772; m. Lois Pellett, July 9, 1797.
- vii. TEMPERANCE, b. June 14, 1774; m. Israel Williams, Apr. 3, 1794; she died Mar. 20, 1795.
- viii. LIBERTY, b. Apr. 3, 1876; m. Susanna Quaterman; he died in 1808, or 1809.

David Holmes served in the French and Indian war, and was Captain in Col. Fitch's Regiment; he joined his company in Hartford, June 5, 1758, and was with his regiment at Fort Edward on the 25th of the same month. He served in that war during three campaigns, the last terminating with the conquest of Canada, Sept. 4, 1760. On the first intelligence of the Battle of Lexington, he joined the army in his professional character of surgeon, and continued in the service till the fourth year of the war, when worn down with the fatigues of the camp, he returned home and soon after died. He expired March 19, 1779, in his 58th year.

6. EBENEZER (Ebenezer, John) was born in Woodstock, Feb. 27, 1720, and was married, Aug. 26, 1742, to Phebe Abbott, by whom he had five children, viz.:

- i. PHEBE, b. June 22, 1743.
- ii. DOROTHY, b. Apr. 13, 1745.
8. iii. EBENEZER, b. Nov. 1, 1748; m. Marcella Colburn, Apr. 7, 1778.
- iv. CHANDLER, b. Dec. 27, 1750; d. May 4, 1755.
- v. HULDAH, b. July 10, 1756; m. Zephaniah Tucker; she died Apr. 2, 1853, aged 96 years and 6 months. He died Apr. 25, 1817.

His wife, Phebe Abbott, died, and he married, for his second wife, Apr. 12, 1759, Martha Howlet, by whom he had three children, viz.:

- i. CHANDLER, b. Mar. 10, 1760; m. Amelia Potter, July 4, 1787.
- ii. PERLEY, b. Mar. 18, 1763.
- iii. MARTHA, b. Mar. 18, 1763.

His wife, Martha Howlet, died and he married, for his third wife, Nov. 16, 1775, Elizabeth Barrett, by whom he had:

- i. MOSES, b. Mar. 6, 1779; m. Lucretia Clark, Apr. 2, 1803.

Ebenezer (6) died June 28, 1794, in his 74th year.

7. ABIEL (David, David, John) was born in Woodstock, Dec. 24, 1763, and was married in 1790, to Mary, daughter of Ezra Stiles, President of Yale College. She died Aug. 29, 1795. He married, for his second wife, Sarah, daughter of Oliver Wendell, of Boston, by whom he had five children, viz.:

- i. MARY JACKSON, b. Jan. 17, 1802; m. Dr. Usher Parsons, of Providence, Sept. 23, 1822. She died June 14, 1825.
- ii. ANN SUSAN, b. May 15, 1804; m. Charles Wentworth Upham, Mar. 29, 1826. She died Apr. 5, 1877.
- iii. SARAH LATHROP, b. Nov. 27, 1805; d. Nov. 6, 1812.
9. iv. OLIVER WENDELL, b. Aug. 29, 1809; m. Amelia Lee Jackson.
- v. JOHN, b. Mar. 29, 1812; unmarried.

Abiel Holmes, in 1780, at the age of 16, left his home in Woodstock and rode on horseback to New Haven to seek admission at Yale, and was graduated in 1783. He subsequently became a tutor in the college, pursuing his theological studies at the same time. In 1785 he became pastor of the Congregational Church at Midway, Georgia, and remained with that people till 1791, when, on account of failing health, he resigned his charge and returned to Connecticut. January 25, 1792, he was installed pastor of the First Church of Cambridge, Mass., and continued in charge until September, 1832. He was a devoted student of American history, and in 1805 published the "Annals of America," a work of leading authority in American history. He was a frequent contributor to the Massachusetts Historical Society, and in 1817, delivered a course of lectures on the ecclesiastical history of the country, and more particularly of New England. He died at Cambridge, June 4, 1837.

8. EBENEZER (Ebenezer, Ebenezer, John) was born in Woodstock, Nov. 1, 1748, and was married, April 7, 1778, to Marcella Colburn, by whom he had nine children, viz. :

- i. OLIVER, b. June 3, 1780-1-2.
- ii. JEREMIAH, b. Feb. 18, 1784.
- iii. MARY, b. May 8, 1786.
- iv. PERLEY, b. Oct. 7, 1788.
- v. SARAH ANN, b. Aug. 18, 1792.
- vi. LUCY, b. Dec. 20, 1794.
- vii. SUSAN, b. Dec. 20, 1795.
- viii. ELIZA ANN, b. Nov. 10, 1798.
- ix. CHARLES, b. Apl. 11, 1801.

9. 'OLIVER WENDELL (Abiel, David, David, John) was born in Cambridge, Mass., August 29, 1809; was married, June 15, 1840, to Amelia Lee, daughter of Hon. Charles Jackson, of Boston, by whom he has three children, viz. :

- i. OLIVER WENDELL, b. ; m. Fanny Dixwell.
- ii. AMELIA JACKSON, b. ; m. Turner Sargent. He died Feb. 24, 1877.
- iii. EDWARD JACKSON, b. ; m. Henrietta Wigglesworth.

Oliver Wendell Holmes was graduated at Harvard in 1829; commenced the study of law, which, however, he soon abandoned for that of medicine. In 1832 he went to Europe, passing several years abroad in attendance on the hospitals of Paris and other cities. The degree of M.D. was conferred upon him in 1836, and in 1838 he was elected Professor of Anatomy and Physiology in Dartmouth College. In 1847 he was chosen to succeed Dr. John C. Warren in the Medical College of Harvard University, which position he still occupies, having abandoned the general practice of his profession. While in college he attracted attention as a poet, and in 1836 his first collected edition of poems was published in Boston (12 mo.); since then, his works have passed through several editions, and have been republished in England. He has also distinguished himself as author of various works upon subjects pertaining to his profession of medicine. He has been a frequent contributor to the various magazines, and "The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table" and "The Professor at the Breakfast Table" have made for him an enviable reputation as a writer of that class of literature.

Mrs. Temperance Bishop Holmes, wife of Dr. David, died August 3, 1803, aged 71 years.

A RECORD OF SOME OF THE DESCENDANTS OF JAMES AND JANE HOLMES.

I find no mention of James Holmes on the Woodstock Proprietors' Records, and he was not an early land-owner in that town. In the Woodstock records of Births I find the following names of children born to Jane and James Holmes, viz :—

- i. THANKFUL, b. Sept. 11, 1690.
- ii. JAMES, b. May 14, 1692.
2. iii. THOMAS, b. May 24, 1693 ; m. Abigail ———.
- iv. JACOB, b. May 13, 1695.
- v. RACHEL, b. Feb. 28, 1699.
- vi. ABIGAIL, b. Feb. 28, 1701–2.
- vii. PHEBE, b. Sept. 7, 1705 ; m. Nathaniel Perrin, Feb. 16, 1744–5.

James Holmes died in Woodstock, Sept. 7, 1743, in his 81st year. His wife died October 3, 1739.

2. THOMAS (James) was born in Woodstock, May 24, 1693, and married Abigail ———. I find no record of his marriage, but the following names are recorded on the Woodstock records of Marriages and Births as children of Thomas and Abigail Holmes, viz :—

- i. WILLIAM, b. Mar. 3, 1740.
- ii. ABIGAIL, b. Nov. 8, 1741 ; m. Joseph Bacon, Aug. 9, 1764.
She was grandmother of Rev. Leonard Bacon, of New Haven.
- iii. JOSEPH, b. Oct. 3, 1743.
- iv. SARAH, b. Sept. 21, 1745.

I do not find any record of the death of Thomas Holmes. An Abigail Holmes died in Woodstock, Dec. 29, 1792, in her 91st year, and this Abigail might have been the wife of Thomas, or the daughter of James and Jane, born Feb. 28, 1701–2.

As the descendants of John and James Holmes recognized each other as cousins, as I learn from Dr. Bacon, I think there can be no doubt but that they were brothers. Further research of family records will undoubtedly add very much to the completeness of this.

Killingly, July, 1877.
